MEMPHIS MEMBERS - NEWS AND NOTES

First, we welcome new members Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman, 191 Lemaster; Mrs. Mabel Hughes, Arlington; and an especially cordial welcome to Mrs. Wm. W. Deupree, 176 Buena Vista who is returning to us, having been a member when the group was organized a few years ago. Among other genealogical problems that Mary Evelyn seeks to solve is the whereabouts of some North Mississippi ancestors.

A goodly crowd enjoyed the Study session held at the home of Mrs. I. G. Duncan at 35 Belleair Drive on the evening of August 15th. Meeting for study and exchange of ideas at night is new for us. We believe the members like the idea and we will try it again. Mrs. Duncan's extensive genealogical library was an attraction. Wilena Bejach (Mrs. L. D.) displayed her collection of recently mounted genealogical maps.

Mrs. Frank Liddell, 4249 Tuckahoe Road, provided her lovely home for our 10 to 4 session on September 19th. At that time, plans were formulated for our forthcoming October meeting. Mrs. Charles Embry will be with us, thanks to the efforts of Program Chairman Betty Goff Cartwright (Mrs. J. B.) and Friend and Advisor, Lillian Gardiner (Mrs. L.B.). Mrs. Embry, well known to all who search for records of forefathers in Tennessee, will talk to us about books, manuscripts, and other sources of genealogical information to be found in the State Library in Nashville. She may also tell us the results of a personal survey of records in certain Tennessee county court houses, obtained while on a recent trip. We are sure no one will want to miss this. Members will be notified by post card, but write on your calendars: Mrs. Charles Embry speaks at home of Mrs. James B. Cartwright, 4533 Park Ave., October 29th from 2 to 4. It is a privilege to have Mrs. Embry come to Memphis to speak to us. Tea will be served following the program.

We were sorry to lose Sally (Mrs. Frank) Basler who has returned to her home in St. Petersburg Beach, Florida. We wish her continued success in her pursuit of the elusive name and/or date.

REMINDER: The microfilm reader, property of the Society, is at the home of the President, and may be borrowed by members who have microfilm records to search.

We are always happy to hear from our "sibling societies". Your President was privileged to reply at length to a letter from Mr. John Plath Green of Dallas, Texas who sought information on the methods, means, and other details of operating a genealogical society such as ours. It is indeed flattering to be admired and emulated, perhaps. We hope we were helpful.

Now, may we all be inspired to WRITE THAT LETTER.

Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. L. Dilliard)

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Autumn is at hand and time for all of us to assemble the notes made this summer and prepare for further study and analysis when winter keeps us close by the fire. Time out for reflective thinking is a must with the "knottier" problems of genealogy and a well kept set of notes often provides an unexpected answer. Remember, too, in writing your family history that anyone can compile vital statistics. It is the person who garners every morsel of information and carefully reconstructs each generation with well documented material who produces the histories we enjoy reading the most.

Your Editor and Director of Research could not resist the "call of the open road" so we spent one week searching in our sister State, Kentucky. We were introduced to Mr. Willard K. Jillson, author of "The Kentucky Land Grant Index" and "Old Kentucky Entries, Deeds, and Wills", while working in the Archives in Frankfort. We also met one of our members, Mrs. Clark Boyd, who very graciously spent one day helping us with our work.

While copying records in the courthouse in Clark County, we introduced ourselves to two other searchers. It was a pleasant surprise to find one was Mrs. W. B. Walker, an out-of-town member, and her companion was Miss Virginia Wilson. Both Mrs. Walker and Miss Wilson spent many hours on the new DAR publication (see the notice on inside back cover), "Kentucky Cemetery Records", Vol. I.

We both found Kentucky a friendly State in which to work and are planning a return visit!

Your Editor was sorry to be away from the telephone when Mr. Tracy D. Cary of Pampa, Texas called. Mr. Cary is President of the Pampa Genealogical and Historical Society and Editor of their new publication "Coronado Heritage". Mr. Cary left a copy of the first edition at our library and we welcome them to our growing list of exchanges.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Burns of Phoenix, Arizona did get an answer when they called recently and we spent several hours discussing the various phases of this work. Mr. Burns has worked hard in behalf of "Ansearchin' News". His articles have added much to our quarterly and we wish other members would try a hand at writing.

In February of this year we received a letter from an out-of-town member, Mrs. Lewis O. Bowman, Sr. of Rockville, Maryland. Mrs. Bowman was complimenting us on our publication and in conclusion she said, "Is anyone contemplating an index to "Ansearchin' News" that you know of? I might undertake such a deal, if you could plan the publication. You see I am a Medical Librarian, and to us a book without an index is absolutely useless unless . . . therefore I am index conscious." So, you may thank Mrs. Bowman for the generous offer and many hours spent that we might have an index this year. Because of the time element, Mrs. Bowman indexed the first three issues and members of our local group indexed the October number so you could have the complete publication this year. Mrs. Bowman and the members of the Memphis group deserve a big hand for such an undertaking. (See inside back cover for notice of Mrs. Bowman's new publication.)

Compensation for this type of publication comes in so many nice ways -- the unsolicited manuscripts, the offer to index our work, the many letters and cards of congratulations, the just-passing-through-thought-I-would-call telephone messages, the wonderful cooperation of the State Archives in working with our Director of Research, the hours of volunteer help in assembling and mailing details, etc. It has all added up to a pleasant year and a desire to try "bigger and better" things for 1961!

NEWS FROM OUR FELLOW PUBLISHERS

The GENEALOGIST WEEKLY QUERY EXCHANGE is back in operation after months of inactivity. The owners write that due to illness and another move they were unable to get out their Weekly Index. The new address: P. O. Box 446, Casey, Ill.

The Wisconsin State Genealogical Society announced in the October 1960 issue of their NEWSLETTER the sale of "Wisconsin Families", quarterly magazine of the Society published in June, September, and December 1940 and March of 1941. It contains a storehouse of information about early Wisconsin pioneers. There are 246 pages, completely indexed, over 8,000 names and nearly 1,000 place names. $2.00 per set from: Mrs. Harry B. Hemming, 938 No. 28th St., Milwaukee 8, Wisc.

MICHIGANA, the quarterly publication of the Western Michigan Genealogical Association, gave the following information in an article by their Foreign Secretary, Mr. John Van Eijsden. There is a German magazine in which you can place a query, if you have reached a deadlock while working on a German family name. Write to: Anzeigeauftrag fuer Familienkundliche Nachrichten, c/o Verlag Degener & Co. Neustadt Aisch. Federal Republic of Germany. The cost is low and the magazine has a wide circulation in Germany, Austria, and Holland. Mr. Van Eijsden whose address is 646 Hill Ave., Muskegon, Michigan, has offered to translate your query into German, if you send a self addressed and stamped envelope. The Western Michigan Society has also published other excellent material on research abroad. $2.50 per year. Address: 714 West Bridge St., Grand Rapids, Michigan.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN, edited by Mr. William Perry Johnson, continues its good work of presenting a wide selection of genealogy and history of North Carolina. Mr. Johnson started a new series in the June 1960 issue titled, "North Carolina Marriage Bonds", Part II, 1779-1800, which should be of great interest to those working in that State. A note of what happened in the case of missing bonds gives the reader a quick reference in this particular set of records. $5.00 a year from the Editor, Box 531, Raleigh, North Carolina.

To some searchers 1865 is "too late", but we should remember folks were just getting settled in the North Country and so the Idaho Genealogical Society is publishing a "Directory of the North Country 1865". The Directory starts in Vol. 2, No. 4 of the QUARTERLY and lists the first inhabitants, their occupation and the location of their businesses. The material has been limited to that of genealogical interest. The list when completed will cover the earliest known inhabitants of Idaho and a section of Washington and Oregon residents. Membership $2.00 annually from: 610 Parkway Drive, Boise, Idaho.

The bulletin of the Oklahoma Genealogical Society (Editor, P. O. Box 7652, Oklahoma City 16, Oklahoma) is full of interesting news for genealogists from all states. Besides the work on Oklahoma records, the reader will find much to note in the other material -- i.e., the March 1960 (Vol. 5, No. 1) contained a review of the Society's newest purchase, "Heraldic Visitations of Wales and Part of the Marches; Between the Years 1586 and 1613". In the review Dr. Owings, History Dept., University of Oklahoma, points out the fact that all Welch people were interested in pedigrees and an abundance of documentary material has survived. Dr. Owings also lists books and catalogs on Welsh Research. Also of interest to some of our Tennessee and Texas members would be the Kimbrough Family genealogical data presented by Mr. Felix A. Kimbrough as he traces this family's early days spent mostly in these two States.

The STAMFORD GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, 145 Park Ave., Stamford, Connecticut, publishes a mimeographed bulletin giving news of its monthly meetings, and other activities. The Bulletin also contains genealogical queries, previously unpublished genealogical data, and the September 1960 issue gives a list of the members and family names. Membership $2.00.

YOUR ANCESTORS, a national magazine of genealogy and family history, edited by Mr. Harry F. Johnston, Box 27, Station C., Buffalo 9, New York (annual subscription $3.00) is made up entirely of family genealogies and the references used in each case. Issues this year have contained the John Farnham (Farnum, Varnum) family of Dorchester, Mass., Johnstons of Pequa, Salisbury Twp., Penn., Edward Wilcox of Rhode Island, Richard Bordon of Portsmouth, R. I., and others.

There is still time for you to mail your queries to be published in the All-Query Bulletin of the SEATTLE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, if your query is for a southern state (Missouri, Kentucky, West Virginia, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Texas will be included in this division.) The charge to non-members is $1.00 for five queries. Please make queries 50 words or less, typewritten or printed, and each should contain at least one date and place name in addition to other pertinent information. Mail queries and check to Mrs. Perry F. Kolb, 4731 - 47th Ave., N. E., Seattle 5, Washington. A subscription to their BULLETIN may be had by sending check for $3.00 to Arthur D. Fiske, Editor, 3007 14th Ave., West, Seattle 99, Washington.

Lack of space prevents our reviewing each of the eight Texas publications with which we exchange. They are all putting forth a tremendous effort to help the many Texans who are working on their family history. Any State showing that much enthusiasm deserves a lot of credit. The Texas publications are as follows:

1. LOCAL HISTORY AND GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY cooperating with the Dallas Public Library publishes a quarterly bulletin magazine. Do not have price. Order from: Mrs. Wm. M. Beck, 7831 Stanford St., Dallas 25, Texas.
2. CORONADO HERITAGE quarterly publication of the Pampa Genealogical and Historical Society. $5.00 from Mr. Tracy D. Cary, 430 N. Sumner St., Pampa, Texas.
3. BULLETIN of Central Texas Genealogical Society published every other month - $3.00 first year, $2.00 for renewal. Send check to: Miss Ann Baker, 122 Bosque St., Waco, Texas.
4. THE GENEALOGICAL RECORD published by the Houston Genealogical Forum. Dues $3.00 -- write c/o Houston Public Library, Houston, Texas.
5. A BULLETIN OF LOCAL HISTORY AND GENEALOGY published by the West Texas Genealogical Society. Do not have price. Address: Editor, Box 2303, Abilene, Texas.
6. THE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY BULLETIN published by the Fort Worth Genealogical Society - monthly - $2.00 annually - write Mr. John Gano, Treasurer, 3620 Spurgeon, Fort Worth 15, Texas.
7. OUR HERITAGE published by the San Antonio Genealogical and Historical Soc., quarterly, $5.00 per year. Write : P. O. Box 6383, Alamo Heights Station, San Antonio 9, Texas.

We are happy to add to our library collection the MISSISSIPPI GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGE which is edited by Katie-Prince Ward Esker, 1301 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington 5, D. C. Annual subscription rate - $4.00.

TOOLS FOR RESEARCH

EARLY BIBLE RECORDS OF TENNESSEE FAMILIES, Vol. I, $7.50, Vol. II, $10.00 from: Mrs. Joseph L. Sneed, 1625 Laurel Ave., Knoxville 16, Tennessee. These records go back to the mid-1700's and connect families to North Carolina, Virginia, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and other sections.

The WILFORD-WILLIFORD FAMILY TREKS INTO AMERICA by Eurie Pearl Wilford Neel and a reprint of COUNTIES OF CHRISTIAN AND TRIGG (Kentucky), edited by Wm. Henry Perrin (1884), may be purchased from Mrs. Cortland Moore Neel, Neelwil Place, 2110 Lone Oak Road, Paducah, Kentucky.

The Ohio Society, DAR, has published OFFICIAL ROSTER III, SOLDIERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION WHO LIVED IN STATE OF OHIO. Write Mrs. John Wesley Smith, 117 Kermit Ave., Williamsburg, Ohio for price.

Thanks to: Mrs. Ludie J. Camp, 524 W. Hopkins St., San Marcos, Texas for the biographical sketch of Rev. William Starke Smith (1797-1876). Rev. Smith was a well beloved minister of the gospel at the little Bethel Church near the city of Lynchburg, Tennessee. Mrs. W. A. Dean of Magnolia, Texas sent tombstone inscriptions copied from the Unity Church Cemetery, Highway 22, and City Cemetery, Henderson, Tennessee. Both papers will be bound and placed in the library.

FIRST SETTLERS OF SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Copied by: Mr. William A. Burns, 2721 W. San Miguel, Phoenix, Arizona

"About 278 years after the first white man, Fernando De Soto, camped on ground where now stands the city of Memphis, the first white settlers moved in under the leadership of Andrew Jackson and founded a permanent settlement. The year was 1819. That same year a county was formed and given the name of Shelby. One year later a Federal Census was taken, and it is indeed surprising that there were so few.

Federal tabulation for the year 1820 for the County of Shelby shows a total of 364 residents, broken down as follows: Male whites, 141; White females, 110; Male slaves, 55; Female slaves, 58. The ages of the white settlers were listed as follows: Males-up to 10; to 16; to 18; 18 to 26; to 45; and over 45. Females were listed as follows: to 10; to 16; to 26; to 45; and over 45 years of age. From a microfilm of these census records I have compiled the following names and age groups:

As I bring this compilation to a close and my eyes glance again over the completed list, my mind quickly reverts back to the time that these fifty family heads and their families moved into what is now Shelby County, Tennessee to carve out a home. It makes me wonder just how many, because of privations, sickness, and other reasons, gave up and went back to their former homes, and who of the number stayed it out to become the nucleus of the largest populated county in the State of Tennessee, and who, in an ever venturous spirit, pushed into Arkansas, Texas, Indian Territory, and on westward.

One invariably wonders about the descendants of these early settlers of Shelby County, and if anyone reads this article who is descended from one of the "family heads", I am sure that the readers of this publication would enjoy a short article telling about their connections".

HELPS IN HUNTING NORTH CAROLINA ANCESTORS

By: Mrs. Thomas P. Hughes, Jr.

In this condensed version of my talk before the MGS, may I repeat that "haphazard research gives haphazard results". Anyone, whether amateur or expert, should prepare before visiting State records, as complete a family chart as possible in the line, or several lines, to be researched. Three chart samples exhibited at your meeting were: the D.A.R. chart with blanks for 6 generations; a husband-and-wife-and children chart with blanks for 15 children (Everton Publs.); and a similar but larger chart which I copyrighted in 1951 while a member of the Mississippi Genealogical Society. Other "at home" steps before leaving on a trip, would be exhaustive study, in your home-town library, of the area to be researched, with emphasis on available Census microfilms, printed county or family histories, and printed county and state records. As a "must" for basic North Carolina research, I consider the following to be outstanding, many of which may be seen currently at Memphis Cossitt Library:

	Secure From	Cost
1. Genealogical Research in N.C. Dept. of Arch. & Hist.	Same (NCDAH)	Free
2. Formation of N. C. Counties (Corbitt)	NCDAH	$3.00
3. Guide to N.C. Genealog. Ref. (W.R. Draughon, 709 E. Trinity, Durham)		5.00
4. Introduction to N.C. Co. Records (Crittenden & Lacy)	NCDAH	3.00
5. N.C. County Histories, 1957 (Powell)	NCDAH	Free
6. N.C. Wills & Inventories, 2 vols. 1910-12(Grimes)-NC State Lib.-ea.		5.50
7. Abstracts of N.C. Wills, 1760-1800 (olds)	Book store	?
8. N.C. Colonial Records, vols. I-X (Clark)	Book store	?
9. N.C. State Records, vols. XI-XXX (Clark & Weeks) NC State Lib.-ea.		5.50
10. Map of area you'll research, printed about the time your ancestor lived. (Photostat of 1771-1775 Henry Mouzon map, No. & So. Carol. & part of Ga.) or, same area, more detail, much larger	Cossitt Lib., Memphis NCDAH-ea.sec.	1.30 1.30
11. Guide to Manuscript Collections (NC Hist. Com. 1942)	NCDAH	3.00
12. The N.C. Historical Review. Quarterly, 75¢ ea.	NCDAH yr.	3.00
13. N.C. Geneal. & Historical Reg., 3 vols. (Hathaway)	Book store	?
14. Quaker Records (vol. I, N.C.) - Hinshaw	Book store	?
15. The North Carolinian (quarterly), Ed.W.P. Johnson, Box 531, Raleigh	yr.	5.00

In my home library I have above publications except Nos. 7, 8, 13 and 14. Most public libraries have all of them. Advance study before leaving home saves precious time (and expense!) after arrival in Raleigh.

Mrs. L.D. Bejach, Mrs. Frank Basler, and I found comfortable and reasonable lodging at Wilmington Tourist Home, 118 N. Wilmington, within 2 blocks walking distance of Archives (two persons in air-conditioned bedroom and private bath, cost $2.50 each per day); no charge for auto parking in rear. We took most of our meals at a small drugstore one block north of Archives building. A good snack-stand is also in the basement at Archives.

Through kindness of Mr. D. L. Corbitt, a supply of pamphlets (No. 1 above) was distributed to your meeting. Also for the asking is the pamphlet "Books, Pamphlets, and the N.C. Historical Review" listing available publications, descriptions and prices. We purchased many of those listed including: vol. 8 of "Records of Moravians in N.C." $3.00; vols. 1 and 2, "John Gray Blount Papers" 3.00 ea.; "Explorations, Descriptions and Attempted Settlements of Carolina 1584-1590" 1.00; "Ye County of Albemarle in Carolina" 1.50; "N.C. in the American Revolution" 50¢.

In showing my family chart, with its explicit surnames to be sought, to the Search Room librarian Mrs. Mary Rogers (always helpful and gracious), I learned one particular ancestor had lived in a "burned county" (i.e., a county whose courthouse records were destroyed by fire or warfare). This stumbling-block was lessened, however, by finding at Archives the following:

- (1) preserved LEGISLATIVE PAPERS (unindexed, uncatalogued, unmicrofilmed);
- (2) personal COLLECTIONS donated through the years to Archives, such as: Lovitt Hines Collection, Charles R. Holloman Collection, etc.;
- (3) COUNTY HISTORIES such as "The Story of Kinston and Lenoir County" by Johnson & Holloman, and "Sketches of Pitt County" by Henry T. King;
- (4) TOMBSTONE RECORDS IN N.C., compiled by WPA on cards filed in special cabinets (not complete for entire state, but most helpful);
- (5) MILITARY RECORDS such as Revolutionary Army Accounts, Revolutionary vouchers, and War of 1812 vouchers, indexed alphabetically;
- (6) HISTORICAL RECORDS OF NORTH CAROLINA, 3 vols., 1939 (NCDAH);
- (7) various and numerous records on shelf display in Search Room.

At the Land Grant Office, I found some deeds also recorded along with land grants, especially valuable when county records have been destroyed! To anyone having interest in the old Dobbs County area (later Craven, Pitt, Wayne, Jones, Glasgow-Greene, Lenoir, Johnston), I highly recommend "The Story of Kinston & Lenoir County". A few remaining copies of this 1954 printing are available from the co-author, C. R. Holloman, 2307 Euston St.

Unable to spend any appreciable time at the State Library on that trip, I plan a return visit to explore old newspaper issues preserved there, many of which contain legal notices involving lawsuits, removal from county, etc. Often such notices point to preserved State Supreme Court records, or Legislative Papers. Such helps, however, sometimes are better searched by local paid genealogists familiar with those avenues; Archives will furnish a current list of such persons, but with fee contract to be completed between yourself and the professional. In the State Library search room, Mrs. Margaret Price is most capable and helpful.

I cannot stress too much the importance of county formation study, and county boundary-line changes through the years. Often an ancestor may be found early in one county, and later in other counties formed therefrom; yet he never moved at all during those years! -- his home stayed in one place, but the county itself was chopped up to make other later counties. County charts I secured were: a small convenient 9x18 County Outline Map (5¢) which I use for quick, continuous reference (I typed under each county name the year of its formation, and on reverse added the parent county or counties); photostats of the large 8-section 1775 Mouzon map; a colored county map with clever figures representing the many nationalities and years and sections in which settled (25¢). Smaller-version photostat of the Mouzon map may be secured from Memphis Cossitt Library (May Case 917.5, 1775, M29), Reference Department.

The State Archives, Library, and Land Grant buildings not being open on Saturdays and Sundays, you may spend intervening week-ends at some nearby county courthouse (if open); or Greensboro Public Library; or at University of N.C. Library's Collection Room, Chapel Hill (if open). Hours and days open are subject to change, so you should contact in advance.

Raleigh points of interest were the public rose gardens in full bloom, each bush tagged, a riot of beauty and color; and the restored birthplace of Andrew Johnson, 17th U.S. President. We had no time to visit others. Raleigh is such a friendly and interesting city, as well as the entire State, that we hated to leave and want to go back as soon as possible! Its scenery is magnificent; its climate pleasant especially in spring or fall; its program outstanding on preserving old records. And be sure to save time to visit Raleigh's "Hall of History" in Archives building, and Mr. Corbitt's publications department with its many volumes for sale at unusually reasonable prices.

GENERAL RUTHERFORD'S EXPEDITION AGAINST THE CHEROKEES

Procured and prepared by President Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. Lois Dillard) from the original Account Book at the North Carolina State Archives, Raleigh.

In July 1776, Griffith Rutherford, Brig. Gen. of the Salisbury District, N.C., was ordered to assemble three hundred men from the Surry County, N.C. Militia Regiment and to march to a rendezvous with like groups of Virginians and South Carolinians, where and when all would proceed to quell the Cherokees who were disgruntled because of advances by the white man on their lands, as well as having been incited to violence against the settlers by the English. The meeting place with the Virginians under Col. William Christian was to be at Stalnecker's on the Holston River. Under Rutherford were Lt. Col. Joseph Williams and Major Joseph Winston. The Regiment dispersed the Cherokees at the Middle Towns before Christian arrived, but he left a force of one hundred men under Captains William Moore and Joseph Hardin to harass the Indians.
