MEMPHIS NEWS AND NOTES:

Since the Memphis Genealogical Society has such a wealth of talent, I am indeed flattered and feel honored to have been elected its president. I shall endeavor to prove worthy of your faith, and with the assistance of the capable officers elected and the enthusiastic membership, no doubt we shall have a successful tenure of office.

There are not enough words to praise sufficiently the preceding officers for their splendid work. In just the past three months they have bought and placed at the Memphis Cossitt Library a reprint of the twelve original volumes (to 1901) and the supplemental volume thirteen (1901 to 1938) of the COMPLETE PEERAGE OF ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, IRELAND, GREAT BRITAIN, AND THE UNITED KINGDOM - Extant, Extinct or Dormant, by Cokayne, edited by Gibbs. As these are such a valuable addition to our collection, it will be necessary to request permission to see them from the librarian on duty. They have also ordered (in cooperation with the Memphis Public Library) an additional eleven hundred dollars worth of census on microfilm to be placed at the library. You can see that the Society has set a standard of excellence which will be most difficult to equal, but we shall do our very best.

Our members will be grateful for and eager to receive the valuable information obtained for ANSEARCHIN' by the former president, Mrs. E. M. Standefer and our editor, Mrs. Harry O'Hara, on a recent trip to Maryland and Washington, D. C.

Members both far and near are anxious to know the other elected officers. They are all from Memphis and are as follows:

First Vice-President	Mrs. Chas. R. Gilley	95 S. Mendenhall Rd.
Treasurer	Mrs. Chas. Reid	749 Garland
Corresponding Secretary	Miss Myrtle Shelton	3402 Park Ave.
Recording Secretary	Mrs. Robert Cox	626 McConnell
Director of Research	Mrs. Charlotte Elam	494 Williamsburg Lane
Librarian	Mrs. L. B. Gardiner	1863 Cowden
Editor	Mrs. Harry E. O'Hara	5391 Shady Grove Terr.

Appointed presidential advisors are: Mrs. E. M. Standefer, 727 Goodlett, Mrs. L. D. Bejach, 43 Belleair Dr., and Mrs. Wm. R. Blair, 438 S. Highland. Mr. W. L. Crawford, 168 N. Willett, Mr. J. Kenneth Kirby, 1849 Central, and Miss Jessie Webb, 1360 Harbert Ave., were appointed as a committee to review and advise the Board, if there are any recommendations for changes in the by-laws.

We are grateful to Frances Rhea Murphy of Memphis for the gift of her book, "The Descendants of Stephen Horton Herbert and Mary Duncan McRae." Your president wishes to thank all who have sent such constructive suggestions, and will welcome and seriously consider all written suggestions sent to her.

Sincerely,

Cleo Webb

Cleo Webb (Mrs. Bunyan)
President, Memphis Genealogical Soc.

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK:

The editorial staff of the Memphis Genealogical Society takes this opportunity to wish for each of you HAPPY ANSEARCHIN' in 1964! Why not add the following resolutions to your list:

RESOLVE: to share with others some of the hard to prove facts that perhaps only you possess. All good deeds bring unexpected dividends.

RESOLVE: to attend one or more of the many outstanding genealogical workshops or conferences held each year in a number of states. They are usually sponsored by a genealogical society in cooperation with a library or college, and each offers some new approach to solving the many complex problems a researcher encounters. Your editor had the pleasure of attending the Second Annual Conference on Genealogy sponsored by the University of Oklahoma, College of Continuing Education, and the Oklahoma Genealogical Society, held in Norman on October 3-5, 1963. Mr. J. M. Ford, Director of the Center, and Mrs. Dorothy Dewitt Wilkinson, Editor of the Oklahoma Genealogical Bulletin, are to be congratulated on the well balanced program presented by the very capable staff of professors from the University of Oklahoma and the Oklahoma State University, plus the latest information on the records being gathered by the LDS Church in Salt Lake City, Utah.

RESOLVE: to add your FAMILY SURNAME CARDS to the files of the Memphis Genealogical Society (see page 22 for instructions). Your cards on file may result in new leads for you and others.

RESOLVE: to do more personal field work (if possible), and less asking others to do it. Many courthouses, archives, and record repositories are complaining about the avalanche of mail requesting information that requires time spent in research. A do-it-yourself approach must be adopted, or many sources of records are going to be closed to the genealogist. Your editor just returned from a record gathering trip to the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore, the Hall of Records and Land Office in Annapolis, and the DAR Library in Washington. The personnel in each place was most gracious and helpful. The ever increasing number of indices make library and archive research less complicated for the novice as well as the experienced. If you have never worked in a library, why not venture forth this year?

NEWS FROM OUR FELLOW PUBLISHERS:

Word has just been received of the sudden death on December 2, 1963 of Mr. Harold A. Sonn, editor and publisher of THE NEW JERSEY GENESIS. Unfortunately the family is unable to carry on his work with the GENESIS, so it will no longer be published. This has been an exchange publication for several years, and we will miss not only the work of Mr. Sonn, but the friendly exchange of ideas.

THE GENEALOGIST'S POST, a magazine pertaining to the history of the people who settled in these United States, coast to coast, will be published monthly starting January 15, 1964. It will contain papers on historical subjects and biographical sketches of the settlers, book announcements, query and answer service (a charge for this) for locating ancestors and another for locating records on books, plus several other features. Subscriptions are $6.00 a year, single issue 75¢ a copy, from Richard T. Williams, 3374 N. W. 35th St., Miami 42, Florida.

The Genealogical Society of New Jersey has been publishing a magazine since July 1925. Cumulatively it is the largest accurate collection of original data on New Jersey families in existence. If you have New Jersey ancestors, you may wish to subscribe to the GENEALOGICAL MAGAZINE OF NEW JERSEY by sending $5.00 to Mrs. Fred Alleman, Treasurer, RFD 1-404, Washington, New Jersey.

The new SAN FRANCISCO GENEALOGICAL BULLETIN will fill a much felt need for records of interest to genealogist concerned with San Francisco data destroyed in the 1906 fire and earthquake. The publication started in July 1963, and is a monthly bulletin compiled and published by Louis J. Rasmussen, 1204 Nimitz Drive, Colma 25, California. Subscription rate is $3.00 per year.

Gillis, 1485 West Chimes St., Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

On the subject of census records -- Mrs. Earl Rainwater, 4810 Arvilla Lane, Houston, Texas, announces the publication of AN ACCURATE AND COMPLETE INDEX OF THE 1800 CENSUS FOR SOUTH CAROLINA, pre-publication price $10.00 (ready for mailing February 15, 1964) and AN ACCURATE AND COMPLETE INDEX OF THE 1800 CENSUS FOR NORTH CAROLINA, pre-publication $10.00 (ready by June 1, 1964).

(Look for Vol. II of the CEMETERY RECORDS in late 1964). Order any of the above from Miss Virginia Wilson, Committee Treasurer, 114 Woodland Ave., Lexington, Kentucky.

We have been sent a copy of the JACKSON DAILY NEWS, Jackson, Mississippi, containing a column in Section D of the Thursday edition entitled FAMILY TREES. The author's name is not given but all queries are to be sent to FAMILY TREES, P. O. Box 387, Louisville, Mississippi.

Not too many people compile a 658 page volume and then donate the copies to libraries, genealogical societies, and interested individuals as a gesture of loyalty to their DAR, CAR, UDC, and American Legion Auxiliary. However, after great expense and many adversities, Mrs. Rozelle C. Wax, 108 South 7th St., Amory, Mississippi, has presented her colossal volume on Pontotoc County, Mississippi to our Society. The work will in turn be presented to the Research and Reference Department of the Memphis Public Library where it can be used by all who visit the genealogical section. The outstanding volume is a Complete Index of all Deeds of Land - 1836-1872; All Wills - 1836-1880; and All Estate Settlements - 1836-1870 in Pontotoc County, Mississippi. The first edition was mimeographed and only 55 copies bound for distribution. Mrs. Wax has advised us that she plans to get out a second edition in 1964 and they will be available to the public. We will carry a notice in due time. We thank Mrs. Wax for her generous gift to our Society, and commend her for her loyalty to her patriotic societies.

Another column we have not reported is the weekly LOCAL LORE AND LEGEND done by Mrs. Irene R. Morris for her local paper, the KENTWOOD (LA.) NEWS. Mrs. Morris has made a SCRAPBOOK of the columns for the past two years for $2.00. Send queries to, or order SCRAPBOOK from Mrs. James Polk Morris, Jr., Box 13, Kentwood, Louisiana.

NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY (1921 Sunderland Place, N. W., Washington, D. C. $6.00 per annum, $1.50 a single copy) Vol. 51, No. 4, December 1963, pages 214-220: TENNESSEE COURT REPORTS, by Dr. Jean Stephenson, is a very worthwhile article on the history of the early courts, and the abstracts of some forty or more of the earliest cases. The author explained that ... "Tennessee has been selected as one of the first states of which abstracts should be published, since the early census records are gone and a few records are generally available for the first twenty-five year statehood." The article contains too many surnames to list in this column.

EARLY WILLS OF MECKLENBURG COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1765-1799, by Katherine B. Elliott, contains abstracts of all wills and administrations recorded in Will Books 1, 2, 3 and a part of Will Book 4, totaling 1290 manuscript pages. The wills are alphabetical, and the administrations are divided into four sections by volumes. This 244 page book has a 40 page index. Price per volume is $12.50 from Mrs. Katherine B. Elliott, P. O. Box 353, South Hill, Virginia. Mrs. Elliott also does genealogical research in southside Virginia counties, at Virginia State Library, and in adjoining counties in North Carolina.

FAMILY HISTORIES:

One of our members, Mrs. Benjamin McFarland Hines, 546 Old Academy Road, Fairfield, Conn., is compiling for publication the voluminous amount of material gathered for many years in her search for the parentage of Capt. Joseph Penn Lynch, who settled in Texas by 1827. If you have an unpublished Lynch line, send it to her as soon as possible. She is particularly interested in getting more Tennessee Lynch families into this record, especially the descendants of the South Carolina family.

THE LAYNE-LAIN-LANE GENEALOGY, by Floyd Benjamin Layne, has been received. The 300 page genealogy of some fifteen branches of the above named families are well documented, and of interest to Tennesseans are the chapters on John of Sequatchie Valley, W. John of North Carolina and Tennessee, Robert of Tennessee, John of Blount County, Samuel of Monroe County, William of Blount, and Drs. William M., Samuel D., and Ross of Blount County. The numbering system used on each family is easy to follow, but the lack of a complete index hampers quick research. We appreciate the gift and it will be placed in the genealogical section of the Memphis Public Library. Copies of the genealogy may be bought from Mr. F. B. Layne, 2236 San Marco Drive, Los Angeles 28, Calif.

The LUKER FAMILY HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWSLETTER is one of the best family publications to come our way in some time. The Society has for its purposes the collection, preservation, and dissemination of historical knowledge concerning the LUKER surname; and in addition the writing of the history of this family and its allied branches. Membership is $4.00 a year. Apply to Luker Family Historical Society, 852 East 8th South, Salt Lake City, Utah.

The STEWART CLAN MAGAZINE is an interesting monthly record of the Stewart-Stuart Families. Price is $4.00 a year from George Edson, editor, 801 East Part St., Olathe, Kansas.

THE FIRST FIVE GENERATIONS OF THE SWING FAMILY IN AMERICA, by Albert H. and Harry P. Swing, begins with the first generation in America, namely, Michael (arrived in 1741), Salome (arrived in 1749), and Samuel (arrived 1750). They came to America from Bischweiler, Alsace. The book is $10.00 plus 25¢ postage from either author, 700 Roberts Rd., Bryn Mawr, Penn.

ANCESTORS ARE WHERE YOU FIND THEM:

POTPOURRI:

Do you have a colonial innkeeper among your ancestors (must have had a license on or before July 4, 1776)? If so, you may be interested in joining the newly formed Society of Descendants of Colonial Innkeepers. Interested persons are asked to send their pedigrees (name, place, date, and published references) to Mr. Keen Stryker-Rodda, 12 Garden Place, Brooklyn 1, New York. A once a year dinner with menus of the colonial period are planned. Sounds like fun!

We have never had so many queries as the December and January mail produced. Please be patient, and we will work them in as space permits. Thanks, too, for all the bouquets in regard to ANSEARCHIN', they keep us trying for more!

RHEA COUNTY, TENNESSEE TAX LIST-1823

Transcribed by Mable H. Thornton (Mrs. Robert E.), Rockwood, Tennessee.

The 1823 Tax List of Rhea County is a part of the George D. Barnes Collection which is owned by the University of Tennessee Library at Knoxville. This extensive collection consists of thirty boxes of Rhea County material including the early marriage bonds and licenses, court papers, and numerous other items. The volume containing taxables for 1819-1829 is a part of the large collection, and may be examined at the library.

The 1808 Tax List (the first after creation of the county), the 1819 Tax List, and other records were copied by Mrs. Penelope Johnson Allen and published in The Chattanooga Sunday Times. Her column, "Leaves from the Family Tree," included the genealogies of many families of Rhea County. T. J. Campbell's Records of Rhea (Dayton, Tenn., 1940) contains information about the early settlement, boundaries, and pioneer families of the county. The Goodspeed Publishing Company's History of Tennessee ... East Tennessee Edition (Nashville, 1887) contains biographical material relating to some of the early settlers.

CLAIM FOR REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSION OF FRANCIS MCKAIMEY, BEDFORD COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Contributed by Miss Florence Eisele.

FRANCIS MCKAMEY (spelled McKemie, McCamey, etc.), born in Orange County, North Carolina, 15th August, 1758. To Guilford County, North Carolina, before 1780 (erroneously entered in Index to 1790 North Carolina Census as "Francis McCairny" with three males under sixteen, and two females in household. -- fe). From Guilford he went to Bedford County, Tennessee, in 1811.

Applies from Bedford County, Tennessee, on 13th November 1832, before Jordan C. Holt, Esq., J.P. Character witnesses: Matthew Cunningham, Bedford Co., Tennessee; Col. James McKissick and William Norvill, Esq., both of Bedford County. Col. McKissick was Clerk of Court, and William Norvell was Deputy Sheriff at the time, and had formerly been High Sheriff of Bedford County. Other officials on the Court considering the claim were a Mr. Neill, Samuel Phillips, and John B. Armstrong. Matthew Cunningham's affidavit states that he was Matthew Cunningham, Senior; a resident of Bedford County, but formerly lived in Guilford County, North Carolina; knew Francis McKaimey in the Company of Capt. Brasher's Volunteers; Cunningham in Capt. George Person's Company in action in Randolph and Chatham Counties, North Carolina.

Officers under whom Francis McKamey served, both as draftee and volunteer: Capt. Brasher, Col. John Paisley, Major Rutherford, Capt. Barnett, Col. Gallaspie, Col. O'Neal, and Major John Campbell.

FRANCIS MCKAMEY states that he was drafted several times, but upon returning to Guilford, North Carolina, after a trip as waggoner with a supply-train to Newbern for salt for General Green's army, he learned that his brother, James McKaimey, also of Guilford, had been killed by the Tories and some of Tarleton's men, whereupon he immediately volunteered for further service.

(Note by compiler - This James McKaimey had married Lavinia Thompson, daughter of Robert Thompson, killed while on a peace mission to Gov. Tryon with Rev. David Campbell. Lavinia Thompson McKaimey remarried Joseph Erwin of Guilford, North Carolina.)

FRANCIS MCKAIMY was put on the West Tennessee Pension Rolls, and the Certificate was sent to Col. James McKissick, Bedford County, Tennessee, after name of Hon. James K. Polk, House of Representatives, had been cancelled on jacket of claim, which was recorded in Book D, Vol. 9, page 154. Francis McKaimy signs his own name.

(Editor's Note: The name McKaimey was copied in its various forms as submitted in the abstract by Miss Eisele.)

(Compiler's Note: Through the kindness of Mrs. Sydney McGrew, Shelbyville, Tenn., and Mrs. Merlyn Houck, Stillwater, Okla., it was learned that Orange Co., N. C., wills show that CATHERINE GALBREATH had married FRANCIS "McKIENY" before January 1799, and on March 10, 1818, Catherine and Francis McKaimey deed to their sons, JOHN McCAMIE and ROBERT McCAMIE, the land in Bedford Co., Tenn., on Big Flat Creek, which had been willed to Catherine by her father, Wm. Galbreath, Sr. Miss Eisele, who lives at 609 Washington St., Natchez, Miss. (39120), will send a typed copy of the complete claim on to interested persons, if self addressed, stamped envelope is forwarded with request.)
