THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear TGS Members:

August 24, 25, 26th will soon be here and we are all excited over the treats in store for us at our Tennessee Genealogical Seminar. I think I shall tell you something about our lecturers, both of whom it has been my pleasure to meet.

Dr. Jean Stephenson of 1228 Eye St., N.W., Washington 5, D.C., has an impressive number of initials following her name, including FASG and FNGS (Fellow, American Society of Genealogists and Fellow, National Genealogical Society, for the un-initiated). She holds the degrees of Doctor of Jurisprudence and Doctor of Judicial Science. Since her retirement from a successful career with the Navy she has continued her writing and lecturing on genealogy and is in constant demand as a teacher in seminars such as ours. Genealogists are indebted to her for raising the standards of genealogy in America - articles, books, pamphlets, and every type of media to instruct in the field of research have resulted from her efforts. Dr. Stephenson has held office in many organizations and is now President of The Board for Certification of Genealogists, Editor of "Appalachian Trailway News"; Past Editor of The National Genealogical Society Quarterly; and contributing editor to many magazines.

I am especially proud to be a member of a few organizations of which Dr. Stephenson has been a valued member: NSDAR; Order of FFFV; NGS; and National League of American Pen Women; to name a few of her varied activities, there are probably others as we both seem to be 'joiners'.

Mr. Milton Rubincam of 6303 20th Ave., Green Meadows, West Hyattsville, Maryland 20782, has also an impressive number of initials following his name, and is also a Fellow, ASG and NGS. He also has an equally impressive list of credits for scholarly articles on genealogical subjects. Mr. Rubincam is known to many as past Editor and present Book Review Editor of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, to which he is also a contributing editor, as well as to The American Genealogists. He is a past president of The Pennsylvania Historical Junto.

A nationally recognized writer and lecturer on genealogy we will benefit from his presentations and enjoy his ready wit and humor.

Dr. Rubincam was the Editor, and Dr. Stephenson, one of the Associate Editors of "Genealogical Research, Methods and Sources", a brain child of The American Society of Genealogists, and a book which should be the genealogists Bible. Its purpose is to give inspiration and a justification for genealogical work - if any is needed - and to answer questions, or at least to put one in the way to finding further and more nearly adequate information.

Both of our speakers have been widely known for their work as Lecturers, Institute of Genealogical Research, in Washington, D.C.

To have them with us for our Tennessee Genealogical Seminar will make 1967 a red letter year for The Tennessee Genealogical Society. We look forward with pleasure to welcoming them to Memphis - and you to the Seminar.

Sincerely,

Lillian Gardiner

Please do not forget that grim note above!

Pleasant things are happening too. One of the most pleasant is the trip to Europe which our Director of Research, Miss Jessie T. Webb, is taking. Many of our good members have sent cards for our Master Surname File and requests for information. These are being held for answer until Miss Webb returns.

We were pleased with the response from our publishing of Mr. Prentice Price's talk in the first quarter's issue of 1967. One letter sent material which will also be of value to many of our members. Mrs. Sara Hurt Miller, 374 A Bergin Drive, Monterey, California 93940, was the contributor:

" ... a source of Land Grants which involved several Tennessee counties.

THE KENTUCKY LAND GRANTS, 1782-1924. Willard R. Jillson.
1925, Standard Printing Co., Louisville, Kentucky

(Index to Land Grants in State Land Office, Frankfort, Kentucky)

Included are:

1. Virginia Land Grants, 1782-1792.
2. Old Kentucky Grants, 1793-1856.
3. Grants South of Walker's Line, 1825-1923, 4,583 separate grants located 'south of Walker's Line' and North of the parallel 36° and 30 minutes, a line which was accurately established in 1819 by Robert Alexander and Luke Munsell, following legislative appointment. Dr. Walker in running his line for the southern boundary of Kentucky in 1779-80, failed to establish the true parallel of 36° and 30 minutes, his line falling variously from 6-10 miles north of the true parallel. Since the old Walker line had been established as the southern boundary and covers a considerable distance, it will be seen that the lands indicated in these grants were really in Tennessee. To settle the matter an agreement was reached in 1820 by the Commissioners selected by the states of Kentucky and Tennessee and furtherance of which Kentucky was given the right to issue grants of all territory lying north of parallel 36° and 30 minutes and east of the Tennessee River. The surveys in this system are not recorded but found in file boxes in the Land Office.

These grants are from pages 892-950, and the Tennessee counties mentioned are Sumner, Smith, Stewart, Fentress, Robertson, Macon, Claiborne, Montgomery and Jackson. An example of the information given is:

County: Sumner; Watercourse: Sulphur Fork or Drake Creek.

For more information or in requesting copies of these grants, one may write to The Secretary of State, Commonwealth of Kentucky, Frankfort, Kentucky".

CORRECTION: The reference in our first issue of 1967, page 35, to The Sylacauga Chapter of the D.A.R. should be to The Fort Williams' Historical Society of Talladega County, Alabama.

Mr. Arnold John Madiol, 436 Orchard Avenue, Grand Haven, Michigan 49417 is expanding his master file of families being researched. He asks anyone anywhere to send him a list of their ancestors and/or also a copy of their genealogy showing names, dates, and places. He offers to place all names in his index and advise of any data. He asks a stamped, self-addressed envelope and time for reply.

The Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Inc., 107 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, has sent two research papers, Series A, No. 1 and No. 2, relating to MAJOR GENEALOGICAL RECORD SOURCES IN ENGLAND AND WALES and IN IRELAND, respectively. These data should be of great help to many genealogists.

The Central Louisiana Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 5361, Alexandria, Louisiana 71301, has a new service for genealogists. In November 1966, the ALEXANDRIA DAILY TOWN TALK, a newspaper, began publishing a weekly column for genealogy and local history titled "Louisiana-En Passant". Inquiries should be sent to the Society.

THE VAN DERWERKEN-VAN DERWERKER FAMILY, a record of the descendants of Roelof Gerritse Van Der Werken who came to America in 1663, has been published. It may be ordered from John H. Van Derwerken, Jr., Baronet Litho Co., Johnstown, N.Y. 12095 for $10.00.

Mrs. Helen Gomer Schluter, 3800 N. Haltom Road, Ft. Worth, Texas 76117, has compiled and published MEMORIES OF SABINE COUNTY, TEXAS, price $4.00. It contains Gomer family history as well as much genealogical information on other families. She advised us that Mr. J.B. Sanders, 409 Nacogdoches St., Center, Texas 75935, has printed several early census, cemetery, and Masonic Lodge records for several east Texas counties and for Sabine Parish, Louisiana. We also learned that Mr. John Wilkins, 1005 Ross, Lufkin, Texas 75901, has a quarterly publication, RECORDS OF EAST TEXAS, covering 23 county areas, and two issues have been released to date.

We are pleased to see the growing interest in genealogy. We have received a new family journal, MOHR NEWS, edited by Mrs. Gertrude Cornelius Mohr, Route 1, Box 15, Llano, California 93544. At the present time it includes data on the families of Cornelius, Shryock, Easter, Jack, Thomas, Holmes, Spiers, Hubbard, Eckelberry, Mohr, Miskimen, Largent, Addy, Johnson and Roberts.

We also have nationally syndicated columns promoting the interests in genealogy. The column written by AMY VANDERBILT on February 16, 1967, suggested to a group of ladies that they form a genealogical study group for exchange of family data.

THE HOPKINS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MARRIAGE INDEX, 1869-1900, has been published by Marian G. Hammers, 651 South Scott Street, Madisonville, Kentucky. The book contains 153 pages, 6700 marriages. The grooms are in alphabetical order and there is a bride index. Price is $10.00.

THE STORY OF HERALDRY. (By Leslie Gilbert Pine. Published by Charles E. Tuttle Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont, 1966. 164 pp. $4.75.)

Review by: Mrs. James B. Cartwright

As a former editor of "Burke's Peerage" and "Burke's Landed Gentry", L.G. Pine can speak with authority on the subject of Heraldry. In this book, Mr. Pine has completely revised the text of a book on Heraldry which he originally published in 1952. As stated on the jacket, the book purports to be the "Only book written in English which tells the history of Heraldry in concise and readable form".

And its companion book:

THE STORY OF SURNAMES. (By Leslie Gilbert Pine. Published by Charles E. Tuttle Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont, 1966. 152 pp. $4.75.)

This is not a dictionary of surnames and their meanings, but a readable story of surnames and their origins from which an interested person can interpret the meaning of his own surname for himself.

Since both books deal very generally with their subjects, neither book will be of definite help to the genealogist, but each would provide a lovely evening of background reading about subjects of interest to genealogist and non-genealogist alike. Both the development of surnames and the necessity for coats of arms are a part of the background of every American whose ancestry disappears into the mists of the history of the British Isles.

We do appreciate all books given to us and we review each of them in our "Ansearchin' News". We try very hard to see that proper credit is given to the donor but being human we do make errors. We regret very much that such an error was made in our Librarian's report, in our last issue.

Mrs. Duncan B. Brown, Jr., of 7819 Harmon Dr., Little Rock, Arkansas, gave to our Society "NORTH CAROLINA BOUNDARY DISPUTES INVOLVING HER SOUTH LINE", by Skaggs. Our sincere apologies, Mrs. Brown.

(Abstracted by Miss Bernice Cole

"A Memorial And Biographical History of Johnson And Hill Counties, Texas" published by The Lewis Publishing Co., Chicago, 1892)

This series of abstracts began in 1965 when Miss Mildred Dulaney of the Fort Worth Public Library went through the volume of material for McLennan, Falls, Bell and Coryell counties, Texas, and photostated all biographical sketches mentioning Tennesseans. The abstracts from that volume were completed in 1966.

We are again indebted to Miss Dulaney who has now sent photostats of similar sketches from the Johnson and Hill counties, Texas, volume, so that we are able to continue the series.

POST OAK SPRINGS BURIAL GROUND, ROANE COUNTY, TENNESSEE

(Contributed by Mrs. Robert E. Thornton, 308 S. Douglas Ave., Rockwood, Tenn. 37854)

For many years one of Roane County's oldest cemeteries has been inaccessible. In the fall of 1965, following an unfortunate "cleanup" of the oldest public burial ground in Rockwood in which upwards of 148 tombstones were destroyed, interested descendants of people buried in the Post Oak Springs Burial Ground undertook to clean up and maintain that historic cemetery.

Located about two miles from Rockwood at the rear of a residence on Post Oak Valley Road, this cemetery shows evidence of several burials in 1811. It should not be confused with the Post Oak Springs Christian Church Cemetery located nearby which appears to have been put to use at a later date. The Post Oak Springs Burial Ground, about 300 feet square, has been commonly called "Smith Cemetery" or "Owings-Acuff Cemetery" in recent years. It is located at the former residence of Delia Smith, but it appears members of the Walker family were the first people buried there. The will of James Harvey Walker (Roane Co., Tenn., Will Book B, pp. 219-221), dated 1 March 1836, reads:

"First I direct that my body be decently enterred at the Post Oak Springs Burial Ground in said County ... should have my grave and also the graves of all the family of Capt. Sam'l Walker deceased at the burial ground in-closed with brick or fixed in such manner as they may think best".

No visible evidence of the described enclosure exists today. The grave of Letha M. Acuff is enclosed in an iron fence, and one unidentified grave shows evidence of having been enclosed by a limestone wall and perhaps once had a slab of sandstone across the top. Worth noting is the fact that the markers for the Walker family are still legible after many years even though the inscriptions were handcarved on fieldstones which in some instances had been shaped by hand. It appears that some of the fieldstone markers have been unknowingly removed from graves in the cleanup, but many such markers are still in place. Possibly one hundred or more burials have been made in this cemetery, but only 47 markers have inscriptions. Two removals for reinterrment elsewhere have occurred.

Emma Middleton Wells' THE HISTORY OF ROANE COUNTY, TENNESSEE, (Chattanooga, 1927) p. 31, lists seven Revolutionary Soldiers and one other soldier as having been buried at the "Post Oak Grave Yard".

Across the upper side of the cemetery is a row of graves removed by the TVA from the Phillips Cemetery. They are marked with undertaker-type markers, bearing name, place from which removed, and a number. Numbers one and forty were found, those not misplaced were labeled as Unid Phillips and Fitzgerald. Removal was made in 1941. The TVA main offices in Chattanooga, Tennessee, have records of the moved graves.

There are many graves marked with field stones. One row of adult graves is marked at both head and foot with large field stones, crudely rocked off to resemble each other, and five more similarly marked at their feet. Timber has been cut from the cemetery as late as 1965, leaving tree tops and brush all over the area and many broken stones.

Civil War Captain William E. McElwee (1835-1927) wrote in an article published in "The Rockwood Times", March 24, 1910: "Nicholas Nail from Pennsylvania and a cripple from frosted feet during the hard winter at Valley Forge. He settled first on Poplar Creek (Roane County) but after the purchase of the territory south of Emory and north of the Tennessee River (1804), he moved to White's Creek. The tall tree beneath which he was buried has been cut away and the C.S.R.R. (now Southern Railroad) curves closely around the little grave yard at the south end of the bridge over the creek".

Nicholas Nail's will was first probated in 1813 but not recorded until 1828. His widow, Mary Ann, was alive in 1836. The grave covered with the stone slab may be that of Nicholas Nail.

Margaret Robertson and Nelson Robertson vs Richard Luallen.

W. E. Anderson was the security for the Robertsons to prosecute their bill, 26 Nov. 1823. To the Honorable the Judge of the Chancery held at Knoxville...State of Tennessee...your Orators, Margaret Robertson and Nelson Robertson, Legatees of William Robertson, deceased, that the said William Robertson...before his death and about the year 1809 or 1810 was possessed...of a negro woman named Hannah... twenty seven years of age and one negro girl child of said Hannah...and one other child of said Hannah...said William being some what straightened in his circumstances...borrowed of a certain Richard Luallen of the County of Anderson (Tenn. ...$400...required...to place in possession of the said Luallen the above mentioned negroes...security...having mutual confidence in each other, no written evidence of their contract...was executed. But your Orators charge...it was well understood... said slaves were only a pledge...William was to have the right...to redeem said slaves...upon paying said Luallen the loane aforesaid...charge that the said William about the year 1816...tendered the pay of said loane to said Luallen... said Hannah at that time had borne other children...said Luallen utterly refused the said William the privilege of redeeming said slaves...said William shortly thereafter departed this life having before his death made and published his last will and testament by which he appointed your Orators his Executors...devised many Legacies specifically in which said slaves are not mentioned, devised the whole residue of his estate...to your Orators...said will...been duly proved (does not say in what county)...said Luallen pretends that at the time he obtained said slaves he made an absolute purchase thereof...prays...that said Luallen answer...

Answer of Richard Luallen filed May 17th 1824

...that about 1 Jan. 1809 or 1810...this defendant was at the house of Col. William Robertson mentioned in Complts bill who then resided in Powell's Valley near to Cumberland Gap, when said William Robertson mentioned to this deft. that he had a negro woman and her two children for sale at the price of $600. and shewed the negro woman to this deft. ...said William Robertson at that time followed the business of buying and selling negroes...at that time this deft. had a large stock of cattle running in the range near the Southern boundary of the State in West Tennessee. In the month of July next...said William Robertson came to the house of a certain John Cox who resided on Cole Water Creek, where this deft then was & proposed to purchase of this deft. about 20 steers...asked $20. each...Robertson offered $18. ...deft. proposed to let said Robertson have twenty one of said steers at $18. each if said Robertson would sell him the negro woman Hannah...and her two children for $600. ...Robertson replied that he still had Hannah & her youngest child but her oldest child was then in the possession of a Mr. Fulkerson of Lee County, Virginia...that said Fulkerson had a debt on the brother of said Robertson & was about to sue him...had pledged Hannah's eldest child...Fulkerson had agreed to take another negro...& give up Hannah's child as soon as Nathaniel Horbert the agent of said Robertson in selling cattle & buying negroes returned from Virginia he would make the exchange...this contract was made at the house of John Cox in West Tennessee....this deft. went to Robertson with William Graham Esqr. for the purpose of receiving the third negro...Fulkerson had sold the negro to a man by the name of Tittle who had started to remove to West Tennessee but had died on the way in Bledsoe County, had died without a will & his property would be sold & that he Robertson would get one of his brothers to attend the sale & purchase Hannah's child...agreed...matters rested for six or eight months when deft again went to said Robertson for said negro...(Robertson had not been able to buy the negro child)...Robertson said that this deft. could not hold the two negroes then in his possession because he had no bill of sale...first evidence that this deft. had that Robertson intended to act dishonestly...this deft. being illiterate did not know what the law was...determined to hold on upon the negroes until they should be taken from him by law...Robertson about that time purchased lands in Madison County, now in Alabama & was making arrangements to remove to that country...once at the house of one John Spessard in Anderson County he offered this deft. $50. for his bargain...the last time this deft. ever saw Wm Robertson was at the house of William McCamey in Anderson County...Hannah has had four children since he purchased her...two of them died and two are living...this deft. insists that Complts. produce the will of Wm Robertson & prove their right to maintain this suit....

This 17 May 1824 Richard Luallen swore to the facts stated before Hu Brown.

/s/ Richard X Luallen

Decree: 6 Dec. 1825...does not appear that Complainants bill is supported by sufficient proof...ordered that the bill be dismissed.

NORTH CAROLINIANS IN TENNESSEE

Part III.

(Contributed by Hugh B. Johnston, Jr., Route 4, Box 133, Wilson, North Carolina)

In August Court, 1825, Nash County, the petition for division of the land of intestate Henry Vick among his heirs included Nancy Vick, wife of Amos Hatcher, "living in Tennessee".

Alfred Spivey of Nash County, North Carolina, died intestate in Tennessee in 1854.

Prior to August 1839 the late Benjamin Cooper of Nash County had "moved to a western county many years previously" and had a son Edmond Cooper and a daughter (or granddaughter) Delilah Cooper married to David Everett.

On October 2, 1811, Joseph John Sumner, attorney for Temperance Drake of Davidson County (presumably in Tennessee) sold Jesse Griffin of Nash County, North Carolina, 100 acres on Little Creek adjoining Matthew Drake and John Arrington; witnessed by Francis Drake and Elizabeth Drake. (Nash County, Deed Book 7, p. 394)

John Holt (1761-1841) and wife Isabella Perkins (1770-1852) of Williamson County are presumably the couple who married in 1788 in Orange County, North Carolina.

Elias Bowden married Celia Lawrence in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, in 1785, lived for a while in Franklin and Granville Counties, North Carolina, and then went to Henry County, Tennessee.

Andrew Bay of Wilson County, Tennessee, in 1820 had been during the Revolutionary War the Sergeant-Major in the 9th North Carolina Regiment commanded by Colonel John Williams.

Howell Tatum of Davidson County, Tennessee, in 1820, had been Captain in the 1st North Carolina Regiment, commanded by Colonel Thomas Clark, during the Revolutionary War.

Hugh McCrory of Hickman County, Tennessee, in 1820, had apparently been a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was a brother of Captain Thomas McCrory who died in the North Carolina service, and of Ensign James McCrory who went to Tennessee in 1784 but by 1820 was living in Washington County, Alabama.

Burwell Bunn of Nash County, North Carolina, died about 1804 and his administrator in Tennessee, Willie Bunn, inventoried money and accounts due. The bulk of his estate was in Nash County.

On March 17, 1835, in Henry County, Tennessee, Joseph Hines had been appointed guardian of Mary Ann Hines, an orphan of Frederick B. Hines, and petitioned to recover her property being held by the Nash County Court in North Carolina.

William Westray died in 1848 in Nash County, North Carolina. Two of the infant legatees were Elizabeth Westray and William S. Westray who were residing in Tennessee when executor Samuel Batchelor later tried to settle the estate. A record of November, 1852, revealed that their guardian was William D. Pritchard of DeKalb County, Tennessee.

On January 23, 1811, Ephraim Clibourn of Knox County, Tennessee, sold Matthew Jones of Robeson County, North Carolina, for L50 a tract of land west of Ashpole Swamp adjoining Joshua Clibourn "on the East side of the two Sisters" and William Phillips (patented by James Rowland on December 10, 1790); witnessed by William Barnes and

N. Powell. (Robeson County, Deed Book P, p. 338.)

On February 12, 1825, Willie Bridger, agent of Benjamin Sholar of Madison County, Tennessee, sold Asa Barnes for $69.00 a tract of 69 acres in Bertie county, North Carolina, adjoining Martin and said Barnes; witnessed by G. Driver and J.W. Peterson. (Bertie County, Deed Book BB, p. 349)

On November 28, 1811, John Bridgers of Sumner County, Tennessee, sold Elijah Boddie for $450.00 a tract of 900 acres in Nash County, North Carolina, bequeathed to him and his brother Henry Bridgers by the late William Bridgers, on Swift Creek adjoining the heirs of Denton Mann, John H. Drake, Mrs. Parsy Pitts, Malachi Underwood, William Arrington, and Benjamin Drake's Mill Pond; witnessed by Thomas Ball and S. Hunt. (Nash County, Deed Book 5, p. 383.)

General John M. Bright, the aged veteran, Lincoln County's most illustrious citizen, was one of the chief attractions of the reunion this afternoon. He made a brief, but eloquent speech, such as he alone can make. The veterans were glad to hear his voice again".
