THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members,

WE NEED YOUR HELP! We are starting a file of Bible records for our library. Won't you share yours with us? Please send Xerox, typed, or printed copy of those containing dates before 1875. Don't forget to include the following: Your name and address, the owner of the Bible, and the date it was printed.

To all you vacationers who may be coming through Memphis -- our library at 2233 Madison Avenue is open on Thursdays from 11:00 to 3:00. We are not far from the main Public Library at Peabody and McLean. Holiday Inn Central is quite convenient to both.

On Saturday, June 24th, our Seminar speaker will be Mr. Milo Howard, Director of the Alabama Archives. We hope all of you within driving distance will plan to attend.

Sincerely,

Betty H. Moore

Mrs. Henry Norfleet Moore
President

Notes From the Editor's Desk

Please note that our issues are placed in the mail at the end of each quarter, March, June, September and December. We mail on a bulk mailing permit, third class, and as the Postmaster has the privilege of holding all third class mail for thirty days your bulletin may be delayed.

Many queries which have been received do not relate to Tennessee or have a specific date or name included. These are being returned for detailed questions. Please do not send us a long string of surnames only with no specific question asked. We need your cooperation.

We are planning to publish more of the Tax Lists for counties where no records are extant.

There is no 1800 census for Tennessee and only two counties have an 1810 census, therefore, we are searching for records, not previously published, which will supplement this lack. We also have a file of very early will indexes which will be published in the near future.

BOOK REVIEWS

Reviewed by Herman L. Bogan

THE GOODSPEED HISTORIES OF MAURY, WILLIAMSON, RUTHERFORD, WILSON, BEDFORD AND MARSHALL COUNTIES OF TENNESSEE (1886), reprinted 1971, by Woodward and Stinson Printing Co., approximately 500 pages, hard cover. Order from the printer, 1015 South Main St., Columbia, Tennessee 38401. $12.50 plus 50 cents postage, and 4½% sales tax for residents of Tennessee.

Goodspeed Histories are well known for their genealogical information of the early 1800's. These books include the formation and brief histories of the counties. Much family history with vital statistics is included in the biographies. Many pioneer Tennesseans are to be found in these books.

Reprints of this type book are a boon to researchers. The reviewer can only praise the work and lament the fact that it is not indexed. However, we understand that someone indexed and copyrighted the index a few years ago. Consequently, it could not be included in this reprint.

AN ATLAS OF GRAVES COUNTY, KENTUCKY (1880), from actual surveys under the direction of R. N. Griffing. Reprinted, 1971, by Kentucky Reprint Company, soft cover, 64 pages, 14 x 17, index. Order from Kentucky Reprint Company, Box 1072, University Station, Murray, Kentucky 42071. $12.50

In this Atlas land survey data and a roster of over 500 early settlers of Graves County, with their occupation, acres of land owned and places of residence noted on the map are given. The birthplace and post office address of the subscribers, as well as the year they settled in the county are included. The maps are easy to read with some pages folding out to cover a particular territory.

LEMON'S HAND BOOK OF MARSHALL COUNTY (1894) giving its history, advantages and biographical sketches of its prominent citizens, by J. R. Lemon. Reprinted by Kentucky Reprint Company, 1971, hard cover, 172 pages, index. Order from the printer, Box 1072, University Station, Murray, Kentucky 42071. $10.50.

Mr. Lemon has written a delightful story of this Kentucky County, covering the date of its formation in 1842 until the 1890's. He wrote of churches, schools, towns, bits of odd history and prominent citizens. His genealogical information is extensive as is the geological survey of the county. His work should not be passed up by genealogists working in this area.

INDEX TO CENSUS SCHEDULES IN PRINTED FORM, 1970-71 Supplement. 1971. Compiled by Mary Marie Brewer. Soft Cover. The contents are alphabetized. 76 pages. Order from Century Enterprises, Genealogical Services, P.O. Box 607, Huntsville, Arkansas 72740. $4.35.

The volume is a supplement to "Index to Census Schedules In Printed Form, 1969". The information is new and published since 1969, or of older listings not found in the 1969 volume. Both volumes contain around 2,000 tax lists, mortality and census schedules. The information is alphabetized by states, a foreign section, surname census, unclassified addenda, periodicals featuring census and an order column of addresses. If one is hunting books a "Book Publishers' Notes" will give one the addresses of publishers and book companies that sell new and used books of a genealogical nature.

JEFFERSON COUNTY, ALABAMA CENSUS, 1870, by The Birmingham Genealogical Society, Inc. 1971. Soft Cover. Over 340 pages. Indexed. Order from Dr. Tom O. Caldwell, 3760 Locksley Dr., Birmingham, Ala. 35223. $15.00

The book is a special publication by the Birmingham Genealogical Society, Inc. in observation of the Centennial Celebration of the City of Birmingham. A feature of the book is the map section of Jefferson County. One, from Colton's Map of the State of Ala., 1870, shows townships and ranges of the county. The other, from the U. S. General Land Office's Reference Map of Ala. for 1878, shows post office locations. The Census material is well organized and easily used.

THE LINDLYS AND ALLIED FAMILIES BY Horace Lindly. Hard Cover. 90 pages. Not indexed. Order from the author, 5323 31st St., Lubbock, Texas 79407. $?.

This is a very nice little book that traces the origin of the Lindlys in England and their migrations to Ireland and Quakerism which led to Pennsylvania, then to Orange Co., North Carolina, Kentucky, Illinois and Texas. Allied families are: Owens, Williams, White, Peeney, Churchwell, Arterburn, Foster and others.

WAINNER. The Family History of Wainner, Overton, McMurry, McMurrat and Interconnecting Lines by Merle Wainner Jeter, George D. Wainner and Others. 1972. Soft Cover. 231 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. R. M. Jeter, 308 Fraser Dr., Beaufort, South Carolina 29902. $9.50.

Mrs. Jeter has compiled a very interesting and intriguing family history. The book is informative and lists people with backgrounds from both the northern and southern sections of the eastern seaboard. These families are traced through succeeding states until they arrived in their present locations. You may find connections among the following families: Wainner, Currey, Long, Alfonse, Wray, Porter, Jeter, Robeau, Anderson, Zipp, Hollman, Gaston, McMurry, McMurray, Montgomery, Overton, James, Allen, Showers, Belcher, Prest, Moore, Stewart, Marcom, Faires and Cowart. Va., N. C., S. C., Ga., Ala., Tenn., Miss., Ark., La. and Texas are states of interest to our section. Some names are listed from Memphis. Many pictures are in the publication.

GIDEON FREEMAN

Dinwiddie Co., Va. and Granville Co., N. C.

Family Notes

Collected and compiled by Betsy West, Jewel B. Standefer and Russell E. Mooney

Gideon Freeman, Sr. was born ca 1745 in Virginia and died 1821/2 in Granville County, N. C. Our first record of Gideon Freeman, Sr. is found on the personal tax list and on the land tax list of Dinwiddie Co., Va., 1782. In that year he sold his land in Dinwiddie County to Charles Booth of Amelia County and on Nov. 7, 1782 he bought from William Booth of Amelia County a parcel of land containing 500 acres in Granville County, N. C. On Sept. 5, 1783 Gideon Freeman was paid by the State of North Carolina 8 pounds, 15 sh. and 6 pence for militia service. He married ca 1768. The name of his wife, as we have it is Mary, daughter of James Richardson of N. C. His children were:

Richardson Freeman, eldest son, b. 1769, m. Sept. 12, 1789, Granville Co., Sarah Bearden. (see later)
Edward Freeman (Edmund) m. India Johnson
Claiborn died in Huntsville, Ala. (see later)

Thornton Jones, Hardeman County, Tennessee

Contributed by Genevieve Campbell

Thornton Jones was born on March 24, 1783, in South Carolina, according to his tombstone. However, the 1850 census states that he was born in Virginia. Perhaps all of this can be interpreted to mean that he was possibly born in Virginia and then moved to South Carolina when he was a child. The names of his parents are unknown. He was married to a woman named Nancy, born March 2, 1788, and by 1814 they were living in Robertson County, Tennessee, where he is found in the 1820 census records. Soon after 1820 he moved with his family to Hardeman County, Tennessee, as he is found on the first tax list for the county 1824, one year after the county was created.

He was a second lieutenant in the War of 1812, in Captain Crunk's Company, Colonel John Cocke's Second Regiment, West Virginia Militia. He entered service in late November, 1814, at Nashville, Tennessee, and was honorably discharged on May 15, 1815, Nashville, at the close of the war.

Thornton and Nancy were the parents of at least nine children: James M., born about 1810; John T., date of birth unknown, Caroline, born about 1813, who was married to Mumford Stokes Marsh; Harriet Wilson, born about 1815, who was married to William Brooks Ruffin; Olivia, date of birth unknown, who was married to Joseph Short; W. T., a son whose name was possibly William Thornton, born March 9, 1820, who was married to a woman named Martha; Lemuel H., born about 1824, who was married to Elizabeth Young; Rose Anna, born about 1828, who was married to Robert S. Carter; and Nancy, born about 1830, who was married to James Winchester Deming.

Thornton Jones died in Hardeman County, Tennessee, on June 8, 1858, and he is buried in a family cemetery, the Jones-Marsh Cemetery, near Toone. He left an estate of land and slaves.

In Hardeman County he lived in the old Civil District #14, about seven miles north of Bolivar and the Hatchie River and several miles south of Toone.

Abstract of the Will of Benjamin Massey, Wilson County, Tenn.

Contributed by Mrs. Ross B. Johnson

Wills and Inventories, Vol. 1-1803-1814

Wilson County, Tenn. Court, June Term 1814

The foregoing deposition of John Buchanan was brought into court and ordered to be recorded. The same recorded 24 August 1814:

I, Benjamin Massey of Wilson County and State of Tennessee am low in body but in perfect mind and memory.

I will that all my lawful debts be paid.

To my wife, Margaret Massey all my household and kitchen furniture, also my farming tools, and other personal estate.

Land to my loving wife, Margaret and after her marriage or death to my three sons Eli, Abraham and Lewis equally. My daughter, Elizabeth $200.00; my daughter Ameline $200.00. After my wife's death my negro boy David to be sold by my executors and the value divided between my three sons Eli, Abraham and Lewis. To Alexander Witherspoon a note that I hold for $70.00 against Witherspoon.

Enos Sharrell of North Carolina, Lincoln Co., to be my lawful executor in that state.

That Joseph W. Payton and my loving wife Margaret be my executors in this state.

D: 25 May 1814
