Contributions of all types of genealogical information will be accepted. All material for publication is subject to editing to conserve space. We publish previously unpublished Tennessee connected data, preferably with most date pre-Civil War. Publishable and nonpublishable contributions are put on file in our library for the use of our members.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Another year is ending and one is about to begin. May this be the year each of you find that one record that has been eluding you for such a long time. Continue to send in your contributions for publication. You may have some information that will contain a clue to just what someone else has been looking for a long time.

This finishes my two years as editor and even though I have enjoyed the work, I must say I am very happy to be able to get back to doing research on my own family. Thank you everyone for your support. I could not have made it without it.

Vol. 1, No. 1, gives Randolph Co. 1799 Tax Lists; Marriage Bonds per Brides Index of "A's"; Liberty Grove United Methodist Church and Cemetery Readings; Vickery Family Genealogy; Marriage Register of former slaves. ANNOUNCEMENT. "A new Genealogical Society, dedicated to the pursuit, capture and preservation of Area Genealogy" is THE EAST TEXAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY. We have the first issue of "THE BULLETIN", a monthly, which contains Society news, research help, queries, etc. The other, "EAST TEXAS FAMILY RECORDS", will contain over 100 pages in each completed volume of records of permanent genealogical value, such as original birth, marriage and death records; probate records, will indexes; deeds, etc. Sections of about 20 pages of the "volume in progress" will be sent to members each quarter. We offer our congratulations and best wishes.

BEEMAN FAMILY NEWSLETTER. We are happy to announce the formation of the BEEMAN, BEAMON, BEEMON FAMILY ASSOCIATION, of which the Newsletter will be a quarterly publication, each volume approximately 100 pages. Purpose, as stated by Ms. R. Browning, Editor, Secretary and Treasurer, "to be an association of those interested in Beeman (etc.) surname in order to promote and encourage research and provide a means of exchange for family information (as well as such records as Bible records, census and county records), thus widening our understanding of our ancestry". No. 3, Summer 1977, is mostly queries, however, one very interesting article is "Old Communities in Gwinnett Co.- Mostly Forgotten". This is so true of many communities in all states. In the words of their president, Keith Mulkey, "Purpose of the society is for all of us to LEARN and KNOW more about the Mulkey Family. That's it, in a nut shell. It is not some fancy club, just a hard working group of people, all with the same goal in mind, striving to accomplish as a group, much more than we have been able to do on our own". Although, to my knowledge, not a Mulkey descendant, I enjoyed reading the entire first issue of Vol. 1 and wish I could find such information on just ONE of my lines.

The Carlton family came from England, probably from Yorkshire. They were found in King and Queen Co. and Halifax Co. of VA ca 1699. LARKIN CRUTCHER FAMILIES by William Greer Peck. 1977. Soft backs. Over 294 pages. Indexed. Order from the author, 5705 Rosario Ave., Atascadero, CA 93422.

Rev. Larkin Crutcher of Williamson and Robertson Cos., TN was thought to be the son of Thomas Crutcher, b in Essex Co., VA and d there ca 1795. Thomas was the son of Henry, Sr. and Catherine _____, who in turn was the son of Thomas Crutcher, Sr. of the same county, who died ca 1722. Larkin was born in Va in 1777, but lived and died in Williamson Co. and Robertson Co., TN. He married (1) Julia Pratt in 1812 in Williamson Co. and they were the parents of ten children. He married (2) Amelia Clark in Davidson Co. in 1827 and became the father of twelve more children. Compiling 30 years of collected family records, the author has done an excellent genealogy of the Crutcher Family of Tennessee, of which he is a descendant. The Crutchers spread far and wide over the southwest, west and to other parts of the United States. The double spacing between individuals for added clarity, as well as, to leave space for the book owner to add other information not available to the author at this time, add much to this book.

Iredell County was formed Nov. 18, 1788 from Rowan County. The settlers were mostly Scotch-Irish who had moved into Rowan Co. from PA down the Shennandoah Valley. There were several minor boundary changes of the county in 1793, 1811, 1815 between Iredell and Burke and Wilkes Cos. Alexander Co. was erected from Iredell Co. in 1847. The authors have described the various boundaries of the county with the adjacent counties. Iredell is bounded by the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Lincoln, Catawba, Alexander, Wilkes, Yadkin and Davie. This is the first volume of abstracts from recorded Iredell Co. court records and contains much needed information.

AN INDEX TO DEEDS OF THE PROVINCE AND STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA 1719-1785 AND CHARLESTON DISTRICT 1785-1800 by the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr. 1977. Hard backs. Over 841 pages. Indexed. Order from: The Southern Historical Press, c/o Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $35.00.

This important source book is essentially two books under one cover. The first is an index to Charleston deeds, which are some of the most important records of SC. They began in 1719 when the province became a Royal, rather than a Proprietary Colony, and they cover the entire state until 1785, when the counties began recording deeds. The index is a copy of one in the Register of Mesne Conveyance Office, Charleston, SC., and is used with their permission. Copies of deeds can be ordered from this office for $.50 a page, however, it would be wise to search, or have searched, the microfilmed copy at SC Archives, Columbia, SC before ordering. Many of these deeds contain seven to ten pages. The second section implies that only Charleston District deeds of the years 1785-1800 are included, however, deeds of many counties and earlier years may be found there.

They stopped in several of the counties, but after the 1818 Jackson Purchase, they settled in Tipton County of W TN, west of the Tennessee River. Many descendants of these peoples are to found in TN and other states. Some related families are: Chapman, Willis, Davidson, Biggs, Brooks, Bower and Aycock. Large print, neatly compiled.

GENEALOGY OF SOME EARLY FAMILIES IN GRANT AND PLEASANT DISTRICTS, PRESTON COUNTY WEST VIRGINIA by Edward Thorp King. 1933. Reprinted 1977. Hard backs. Over 233 pages. Indexed. Order from: The Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, MD 21202. $12.50.

Grant and Pleasant Districts of Preston Co., W. VA were formed in 1852. The county, once a part of VA, adjoins Fayette Co., PA and Garrett Co., MD. The families of this county left their kin in PA and MD. These families in particular are considered: Christopher, Conner, Cunningham, King, Methany, Ryan, Street, Thorpe, Walls, Wheeler and Wolf. In addition to these genealogies, the publication features vital statistics, records from five churches, including marriages in some, 18 family Bibles, 41 cemeteries, giving dates of birth and deaths. As many as 7500 names are listed, many of them from collateral lines.

DESCENDANTS OF THE "CONNECTICUT CALAWAYS" and FAMILY ALBUM by Merle Leland Calaway. 1976. Hard backs. Over 287 pages. Not indexed. Order from Mrs. Julia E. Calaway, 260 Mill St., Conneaut, OH 44030. $13.00.

The name Calaway has had many variations of spellings: Callaway, Calloway, Callo-wet, Kelloway, etc., and is of British origin, probably Anglo-Saxon. The earliest Calloways in America of record settled in VA and then spread into KY & MO. Later immigrants from the British Isles settled in the New England Colonies then moved westward to the Western Reserve of the Connecticut Land Grant in northwestern OH. Calaway spelling distinguished the CONN descendants. The book is divided into two sections: Aralzaman Calaway and James B. Calaway, bros and two of the children of William A. Calaway and Sarah Collier of CONN, who were the first of the Calaway family found in America. This neatly compiled family lineage contains approximately 100 Callaways & descendants reflected in the 235 pictures & numerous family charts.

BIBLE OF EASON BIRCH WILCOX

Contributed by Louis Johnston, Jr.

729 Woodlawn Drive, Cookeville, Tennessee 38501

The copy of this Bible was sent to us with this note: "The Bible was well worn and I could not find the cover pages, therefore, no date, publisher, etc. Apparently the name of the Bible was The Twentieth Century Bible. Mr. Wilcox was a local Methodist minister, therefore, he wore out several Bibles, but I'm inclined to believe that this is the first one that he had after his marriage."

ABSTRACTS OF ILLINOIS BIOGRAPHIES

Contributed by Elizabeth R. Nichols (Mrs. J. E.)

In 1887, The Goodspeed Publishing Company of Chicago published their first edition of HISTORY OF GALLATIN, SALINE, HAMILTON, FRANKLIN AND WILLIAMSON COUNTIES (of) ILLINOIS, which contains histories and biographies of the five named counties. In 1976, Unigraphic, Inc., Evansville, IND, published a reproduction of the original edition. The abstracted biographies which follow show some connection with Tennessee in the life of the subject. Because these are abstracts and are not complete quotes, the researcher should refer to the original book for complete information. Abbreviations used are as follows:

B. - Born	PTS. - Parents	GRPTS. - Grandparents
D. - Died	SIB. - Siblings
M. - Married	CHN. - Children
