THE MASTER SURNAME INDEX

WHAT IS THE MASTER SURNAME INDEX? The MASTER SURNAME INDEX is one of The Tennessee Genealogical Society's efforts to aid you in your family research. The Index contains thousands of cards representing individuals found in the family trees of our members and subscribers. Our file is not restricted to any particular locality, but covers families who lived in various European countries and in every state of the United States.

HOW TO USE THE INDEX? Members and subscribers may request information from this file by writing to The Tennessee Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 12124, Memphis, TN 38112. They will receive information from four (4) surname cards per each written request accompanied by a SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE. Please limit requests to one each three (3) weeks as this has proved to be a popular service and an effort is being made to expedite your replies.

WHAT YOU RECEIVE? Information sent you from this file includes data from the card(s) and names and addresses of those working on the same surname. WE DO NOT DO FAMILY RESEARCH. ONLY MEMBERS AND SUBSCRIBERS MAY USE THIS SERVICE.

SEND YOUR CARDS? You can help make this file more effective by sending us a 3 x 5 inch file card (no other size will fit our files!) for EACH member of your family tree to be added to this Master Index. Cards should be typed or printed very plainly.

WHAT TO PUT ON YOUR CARDS? Please follow the outline of a sample card below in preparing your cards. Each card should contain at least one date and one place, even if they are estimated or guessed. This will enable us to determine that a person who lived in one area in the 17th century is a different person from one (with the same name) who lived in another area in the 19th century. Please keep your address current with the Surname Index secretary; the index is revised every five years and if you have not written in that time, your surname cards are transferred to another file for use in the genealogical library.

"The volume herein transcribed and abstracted is in the office of the Probate Judge, Abbeville County Court House, Abbeville, SC." It is a combination Journal of the Ordinary and Inventory Book and a Will Book. The journal portion of the book is a verbatim transcription, while wills and inventories are abstracted except for the historically important will of the Indian agent George Galphin. A few marriage records are found in the book. Other factors, such as the conditions in Charleston, the law of primogeniture until 1891, some estates for which no original papers have been found, etc., are on record. -HLB

THE ELLIS LINE FROM SURRY-SUSSEX IN VIRGINIA by Dixie L. McCrary. 1978. Soft back. Over 300 pp. Indexed. Order from Dixie L. McCrary, 630 Pasadena Ave., South, St. Petersburg, FL 33707. $12.00

The publication documents the early lines descended from Edward Ellis, immigrant to VA ca 1636 who settled in present Surry County. Some 2000 additional names of families allied to Ellis by marriage, friends, neighbors, etc. are listed. The book covers all of the Ellis names found in court records of Surry and Sussex Counties 1650-1800 and many others who migrated to other VA counties, NC, TN and other southern states. Three major branches of the family are traced with lines of descent shown in 26 family charts. One hundred summaries of the records of each individual founder of a branch, sub-branch or group of families makes the book a research tool of importance. The index consists of summaries: men of surname Ellis, Ellis wives, and Ellis daughters (with married names when known). -HLB

GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY WITH ALPHABETICAL NATIONWIDE COUNTY INDEX by Michael L. Cook, C.G. 1979. Soft back. Over 105 pp. Order from Cook Publications, 3318 Wimberg Ave., Evansville, IN 47712. $7.50 + .65 mailing.

The Dictionary has been designed specifically for one doing genealogical research. It contains some legal and medical terms, foreign words and obsolete terms which are often found in genealogical work. The publication has 2500 definitions of genealogical value. The alphabetical list of counties in U. S. is most helpful when one knows a county name but not the state; many states have counties by same name. -HLB

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE NEW WEST published by the United States Biographical Publishing Co. 1881. Republished 1979 by the Southern Historical Press. Hard back. 1056 pp. Indexed. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $50.00

This "encyclopedia" is actually five volumes combined. Each volume deals with a different state and begins with a very brief section of history before listing, in no apparent order, the biographies of prominent citizens. The states covered herein are: Texas, Arkansas, Colorado, and New Mexico. A thirteen-page volume on Indian Territory, The Cherokee Nation, is included. A genealogical index has been added to the original publication, and of particular interest is a chapter titled "One Hundred Old Texians." The editor of 1881 says, "...the following brief notice of over a hundred persons, nearly all deceased, who figured usefully and most of them with more or less distinction in the earlier days of Texas..." is prepared from data supplied by others. -BFW

THE RANDOLPHS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA compiled by Blanche Randolph. 1979. Hard back. 220 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 302 Vernon, Little Rock, AR 72205. $20.00

The author lists John, James and Thomas Randolph in Prince William Co., VA, in 1727 and 1747. John was the oldest, she assumes, since he was always "bailing the other two out." The county is in the "Northern Neck" of VA. It was not an original county and passed through Westmoreland, Stafford, and King George counties before being established in 1734. The original county included Fairfax, Fauquier and Loudoun counties and Alexander City. Dattingen Parish Records, Order Books, Wills, and Deed Books were used to establish the family in this county. Descendants can be found in MD, VA, KY, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and LA. Related families listed in some depth are: Osborn, Wright, Purcell, Tyler, James, Oliver, Bayliss and Bland; however, many more surnames appear in the index. -HLB

This book of Johnston County Court Minutes is continued from Ms. Haun's previous volume and contains a large index of over 400 surnames with additional first names. Included are accounts of sales, lists of justices, jurors, etc. Genealogists are indebted to Ms. Haun for making available this prime source material. - EWG

The book consists of a wealth of local history and historical details. The presentation is a narrative-outline form. There are 126 illustrations, 7 maps, 2 charts, and 8,000 names in the index. Family pictures, diaries, letters, newspaper clippings, primary source records, etc., add to the usefulness and interest of the volume. The book is arranged in ten sections, one for each related family, with footnotes at the end of each section. An overall index of names of people, places and subject headings is a valuable genealogical asset.

EARLY DAYS IN DETROIT: Papers Written by General Friend Palmer 1906. Republished by Gale Research Company. 1979. Hard backs. 1032 pp. Indexed. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $25.00

The publication is a collection of historical observations about Detroit by General Friend Palmer. Palmer's residency in Detroit extended from 1827 until his death in 1906. The book, which was published immediately after his death, is the result of eighty years of memories about various persons, places, and events. The author tells of early attacks by Indians, the Toledo War, slavery days in Michigan, men prominent in the city's affairs, fighting epidemics and fires. Included are intrinsic characteristics of the city's history such as the old hotels, the first Baptist Church, the old river front, and the first theatre. MARRIAGE RECORDS OF FRANKLIN COUNTY, TENNESSEE, 1838-1875 by Billie and Hall Burks. Published by the Franklin County Historical Society. 1979. Hard back. Pages not numbered. Indexed. Order from the Franklin County Historical Society, P. O. Box 130, Winchester, TN 37398. $13.00

North Carolina marriage laws, which were in effect when that state quit its claim upon the territory of Tennessee, remained in effect in Tennessee until 1838. The Tennessee Legislature passed an act in January of that year requiring the county clerk to issue and record licenses and the returns. This book is a verbatim copy of the records from 1838-1875 and contains some 4300 marriages. The usual allowances for spelling and other such discrepancies has been made and should be helpful to researchers. -HLB

This publication is a sequel to the Genealogical History of the Halliburton Family and the Genealogical History of the Rutherford Family by the same authors. Research over a period of forty years has yielded genealogical information pertaining to other families which were connected with the Halliburtons and Rutherfords. In this volume sixty-nine families of different names of known ancestors have been accounted for. Original records are used whenever possible. Lineage charts are used to simplify and clarify the relationship to the various families. -HLB

Keith Kinfolks starts with James Keith, Jr., in Montgomery (now Floyd) County, VA just before the Revolutionary War and extends to present day, listing eleven generations. The format resembles a directory of famous people, giving a brief paragraph of vital statistics on each one. The author has a beautifully simple numbering system which enables one to quickly find and place his Keith ancestor. Note: Libraries, genealogical and Historical societies are given a 20% discount if payment accompanies order. -EWG

I only wish I could say I had compiled it! -EWG

Most of this book deals with the Robert Goodlett family of South Carolina, originating in Scotland, and a smaller part with the Adam Goodlett family of Tennessee and Kentucky. The author believes the two men were closely related. Time period extends from 1700's through 1900's. The families of Lide, Few and Reese are allied lines which joined Goodlett lines in the late 19th century. BERTIE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES 1740-1743, 1758-1762, BOOK II by Weynette Parks Haun. 1977. Soft back. 127 pp. Indexed. Order from Weynette Parks Haun, 243 Argonne Drive, Durham, NC 27704. $14.00

Bertie County, formed in 1722, is in the northeastern third of North Carolina. This transcription from the film of the original book insures accuracy by retaining abbreviations, spellings and deletions as they were written in 1740. Such distractions, coupled with old-style handwriting, may make it difficult for a novice to search the originals, but the compiler continues her admirable practice of capitalizing surnames, making it easy for the eye to pick up a name on the page. Such early courts heard almost every type of legal procedure; therefore much genealogical data is here.

JOHNSTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES 1812-1815, BOOK IX by Weynette Parks Haun. 1977. Soft back. 144 pp. Indexed. Order from Weynette Parks Haun, 243 Argonne Drive, Durham, NC 27704. $15.00

Johnston County lies in the central portion of North Carolina and is bordered by Wake, Nash, Wilson, Wayne, Sampson and Harnett counties. The minutes contain lists of jury members, orphan accounts, lawsuits, estate settlements, etc., and in a few cases residents of bordering counties are involved. These early records reveal much of the day-to-day living in that time and they will be of interest to historian and genealogist alike. -EWG

GEORGE ADAM MANN 1734-1821, A FAMILY ON FOUR FRONTIERS, PENNSYLVANIA, VIRGINIA, KENTUCKY AND OHIO by Dorothy C. Knoff. 1977. Hard back. 168 pp. Order from the author, 10 Pond View Drive, Route 2, East Sandwich, MA 02537. $20.00

The author has written a very unusual and interesting family story. Her description of the way of life in a historical background presents her ancestors in four states. The origin of the Mann (Mohn) family in America is presented in the person of Jerg Bernhart Mohn, a Palatine, who arrived at Philadelphia September 21, 1732, in the ship Plaisance. This is a very readable and genealogically useful story which tells of the growth and spread of this family and could be a model for other similar families. Maps, surveys, photographs and illustrations add visual interest to a well-researched book. -HLB

WAKE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES 1787 thru 1792, BOOK II compiled by Weynette Parks Haun. 1979. Soft Back. 134 pp. Indexed. Order from Weynette Parks Haun, 243 Argonne Drive, Durham, NC 27704. $16.50. (North Carolina residents add 67¢ sales tax.)

This volume of Ms. Haun's transcriptions encompasses two of the original record books of Wake Co. The first is 68 pages of the original book for 1787; the second section covers minutes from September 1789 through June 1794 which is 293 pages in the original form. Surnames are in big bold capitals throughout, making this work very easy to scan. The reader having used the index turns to the specified page and quickly finds the desired name. Records from the hub of the "Old North State" are welcome additions to genealogical libraries.

SOUTHEASTERN OHIO LOCAL AND FAMILY HISTORY SOURCES IN PRINT, 1979 compiled by Marilyn Adams. 1979. Soft back. Indexed. Order from Heritage Research, P. O. Box 49341, Atlanta, GA 30359. $6.00

CITY, COUNTY, TOWN AND TOWNSHIP INDEX TO THE 1850 FEDERAL CENSUS SCHEDULES - Volume 6 of the Gale Genealogy and Local History Series by J. Carlyle Parker. 1979. Hard back. 215 pp. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $22.00

When a researcher is hampered by not knowing in what county a certain town or village or settlement is located, he will find this book a valuable timesaver. Also included are the National Archives microfilm order numbers and Mormon microfilm call numbers for persons needing to make use of interlibrary loan. -EWG

INDEX TO THE BIOGRAPHIES IN 19TH CENTURY CALIFORNIA COUNTY HISTORIES - Volume 7 of the Gale Genealogy and Local History Series compiled and edited by J. Carlyle Parker. 1979. Hard back. 279 pp. Indexed. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $22.00

About 1875 county histories became a popular publication, containing biographical sketches and sometimes portraits. This work covering 61 such California histories indexes 16,500 names and tells where to find them. Persons searching for lost ancestors who "went west" might find their own gold mine here. -EWG

MECKLENBURG COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA DEED ABSTRACTS 1763-1779 by Brent H. Holcomb C.A.L.S. and Elmer O. Parker. 1979. Hard back. 274 pp. Indexed. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $25.00

Mecklenburg County was erected in 1763 from Anson County. The county was west of Anson and south of Rowan. All or portions of the following counties of SC were taken from Mecklenburg Co., NC: York, Chester, Lancaster, Spartanburg, Union, Cherokee, Kershaw, Laurens, Newberry and Greenville. In 1769 the Indian line was surveyed. This line became the western boundary of Mecklenburg Co. Tryon Co. was formed in 1769 taking the territory west of the Catawba River. Next in 1772 the SC-NC line was surveyed which cut off present Lancaster and a portion of York Co. from Mecklenburg Co. and, therefore, from NC. These deed abstracts cover the entire period (the first nine books) when Mecklenburg included the area of the NC-SC counties mentioned above which explains why some early SC records must be sought in NC border counties. -HLB

WATERS-TURNER-WILSON-HATCH FAMILIES OF MARYLAND: Ancestors of Shelah Waters and Nancy Turner compiled by Jean Young Kent, text by Harry Wright Newman. 1979. Soft back. 90 pp. Indexed. Order from Jean Young Kent, 4066 Mattison Ave., Ft. Worth, TX 76107. $10.00

Shelah Waters was born 1768 in Charles Co., Maryland. On 1 November 1789 he married Nancy Turner (born 1770). Nancy Turner died in 1827 and Shelah married Nancy Cannon (Wallace). This is the record of ancestors and descendants of this couple as told by cemetery inscriptions, bible records, certified public records, old letters, etc., many of which have been reproduced in these pages. It is a collection of data from many people who appreciate and have preserved family records. -HLB

WILL BOOK 2X, AMELIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA, WILLS 1761-1771 abstracted and compiled by Gibson Jefferson McConnaughey. 1979. Soft back. 63 pp. Indexed. Order from Mid-South Publishing Company, P. O. Box 188, Amelia, VA 23002. $7.98.

Will Book 2x contains not only wills, inventories and appraisals, but also depositions, estate settlements and expense accounts. All instruments pertaining to a particular devisee have been grouped together for this publication, which simplifies the search. A note is added in cases where the actual will was recorded in Will Book I which was previously abstracted by the compiler. Many slave names are to be found in these detailed abstracts and all names mentioned in the estate settlements are listed. McConnaughey has published a cookbook of recipes recorded by six generations of his family and a journal of ghost happenings at his plantation home. In the future he plans to continue the will books (1771-1779) and to present a doctor's journal full of names and information circa 1829-1843. -EWG

CEMETERY INSCRIPTION OF MARION COUNTY, ALABAMA, VOLUME I compiled by Dorothy Shores Stalcup and William Spann Stalcup. Soft backs. 175 pp. Indexed. Order from the compilers, P. O. 217, Winfield, AL 35594. Soft backs, $16.00; hard backs $21.00. Alabama residents add tax.

Marion County is located in northwest Alabama and was originally part of the Chickasaw Indian lands. It was formed in 1818 as a part of the Alabama Territory, and was much larger than at present. This publication has more than 8000 names and 850 surname tombstone inscriptions from 54 cemeteries located in the southern part of the county. Complete listings are included and unmarked graves are noted where they occur. Although most of the markers are relatively recent, there are many birth-dates which pre-date the War Between the States. The oldest noted by this reviewer was that of Robert Bowlan 1782-1851. Many lost and hard-to-find family cemeteries are included. -HLB

MARRIAGE, DEATH, AND ESTATE NOTICES FROM GEORGETOWN, SOUTH CAROLINA NEWSPAPERS 1791-1861 by Brent H. Holcomb, C.A.L.S. 1979. Hard back. 255 pp. Indexed. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $25.00

Georgetown District was the last of the SC districts to be broken up into counties. Marion Co. was formed in 1798; Horry District in 1801; Williamsburg District in 1804 or 1806. Before these districts or counties were formed, all probate records and deeds were kept in the district seat of Georgetown. The records of Georgetown District were destroyed by fire in 1865. They had been removed to Cheraw, SC for safe keeping. Even after the formation of the above districts, legal notices were still published in Georgetown newspapers. These newspapers are located in three main repositories: The South Caroliniana Library, The Charleston Library Society, and the Duke University Library. -HLB

These records are abstracted from material compiled over a forty-year period by a member of the U. S. Daughters of 1812, with some additions by the author. Anyone known to have been in Texas and had military or public service in 1812 is included. Names of parents and children are given if known plus some personal material. Many, many states and counties are represented in places of origin. -EWG

OF A PEOPLE AND A CREEK by Raymond Elliott and Mildred Padon. 1979. Hard back. 98 pp. Indexed. Order from Elmer Pinson, 1204 Greenbriar, Cleburne, TX 76031. $12.00

The authors, in a delightful way, have portrayed the pioneers who found a creek, good land to work and build homes on and to make a community. The essay-type story of the George's Creek Community tells, perhaps, of a typical settlement in the early history of Texas. Johnson County is in that part of eastern Texas where the woodland lies along the water courses and makes fingers of green trees advancing into the prairie land. The 723 marked tombstones in the cemetery have names listed alphabetically. Also alphabetized, furnishing names of people who made George's Creek Community, are memberships of New Prospect (Baptist) Church, Fort Spunky School enrollment and a general surname index. -HLB

THE WASHINGTON CONNECTION, a Royal Pedigree produced by J. E. Cobb, Jr., USA (ret.) 1979. Order from J. E. Cobb, Jr., 1208 Tatum Drive, Alexandria, VA 22307. Write Mr. Cobb for price.

This pedigree chart of George Washington names the first three male members of the family to emigrate to America, includes a connecting line of John Washington, 1658 emigrant, whose descendants settled in eastern North Carolina, and lists the thirteen owners of Mount Vernon. Time period ranges from 1422-1931 and includes such family names as Ball, Blount, Bond, Browne, Butler, Carter, Cobb, Custis, Ewing, Flood, Flagg, Graham, Jordon, Lee, Lewis, Nicholson, Parks, Pollard, Platt, Randolph, Selden, Shrewbury, Stephens, Spottswood, Willis and Wood. -EWG

THE GRIFFITHS OF WALES AND AMERICA by Anna Lauria Griffith. 1979. Available in both hard back and soft back. 314 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Wayne Griffith, Rt. 1, Box 306, Mayfield, KY 42066. Hard back, $20.00. Soft back $17.50.

The author traces her people in Wales through forty-one generations. She has been able to do this because they were of the Royal Tribes. The Griffiths came to America early in the 17th century, in the persons of three brothers, John, William, and Griffiths. It seems that the Welch people did not use a surname until the beginning of the 17th century so these three brothers chose Griffiths as their surname. They settled in Chester Co., PA. Related Welch families chose such surnames as Johns, Lloyd, Hughes, Jenkins, Howell, David, Cadwalder, Cadwallon and Llwelyn. The author does a good job of presenting allied families, wills, etc. Her immediate family is found in Graves, Christian, and Trigg Counties of Western KY. The Griffiths are widely distributed over the fifty states.

UNITED STATES CENSUS 1860, WILLIAMSON COUNTY, ILLINOIS transcribed by Hatfield and Lind. 1976. Soft back. Indexed. Order from Ms. Helen Lind, 1211 Monroe, Johnson City, IL 62951. $12.50

Williamson County, Illinois 1860 Federal Census, being very dim on microfilm, has been sorted out and put in good order in book form by the transcribers. Age, sex, and place of birth in addition to real estate and personal property values are given. Also, some names are *, meaning that Lind will supply additional information on that person for SASE. -EWG

CORRECTION: The review of LANGSTONS AND THEIR KIN, A COMPENDIUM OF LANGSTON RESEARCH by Inez M. McClellan, C. G., and Marvin Ross Langston, Jr., which appeared in our last issue (Volume 26, Number 2, p. 54), was in error. John Langston, born 1710 was not the progenitor of the Langston family in America, but rather, as is pointed out in the book, "We begin this book with John Langston (1710-1790) because he is well-known to us." John Langston's wives were Agnes Mangham and Elizabeth (Persons?). We sincerely regret any embarrassment or inconvenience that this error has caused to the authors. -Ed.

Mrs. J. M. Hacksma of 1815 Grant Road, Winatchee, WA 98801 is researching the BRUTON/BREWTON name, a task which is made more difficult, she points out, because transcribers of public records persistently copy the name as Burton, Britton, and other variations. "Ansearchin" News also succumbed to that temptation when they transcribed the index to the 1840 census of McNairy County in Volume 23 (1975), incorrectly recording David Bruton as Burton. Mrs. Hacksma sends this information about that McNairy County family:

David Brewton/Bruton, born 1790 Spartanburg Co, SC, married in Greenville Co., SC Nancy Langford, born 1794. They moved their family to McNairy Co, TN between 1820 and 1826 where David taught school. On 5 July 1826 he and the following men sign an "agreement" obligating him to teach reading, writing and arithmetic to their 13 children for a three-month term for five days a week:

Charles S. Spencer (2 children)
Michael R. Bolt (2 children)
George Reaves (1 child)
James Colly (1 child)
Joseph Clark (3 children)

Samuel Redden (1 child)
James Stewart (1 child)
Wm. Smith (1 child)
Josiah Courtice (1 child)

When the David Bruton family left McNairy County, they moved to Greene County, MO and Webster County, MO. The Bruton children were:

Thomas Bruton, b. Oct 1811 (married Lavinia Scott)
 Benjamin Bruton, b. Nov 1813 (was in Corinth, MS in 1874)
 Dorcas Bruton, b. May 1816 (married Fredk. Branstetter)
 Hiram Bruton, b. June 1818 (married Elizabeth Rhinehart)
 Edia Bruton, b. July 1821 (married E. P. Cardwell)
 Miles Bruton, b. May 1824 (married Lucy Ford, Nellie Green, and ____ Louis.
 Elizabeth Bruton, b. May 1826 (married Marrel McDonald)
 Clarinda Bruton, b. Dec 1830 (married Mark Hatfield)
 Jesse Thompson Bruton, b. July 1832 (married Martha F. Dameron, Mary Hyde, ____.)
 David Pinkney Bruton, b. July 1835/6 (married Polly Patterson)
 Tyrrel Phillip Bruton, b. April 1838 (married Martha McDonald)

Other Brutons were in Tennessee early, appearing in the "Indian Boundary" of Grainger County in 1797 and in the 1805/06 tax list of Anderson County.
