OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

The summer and fall months are travel time for many genealogists, and one way to enrich a trip is to include a seminar on the way. Opportunities for two such events are offered here.

The Tennessee Genealogical Society will host a seminar on October 9, 1982 at which Brent H. Holcomb, Certified American Lineage Specialist of Columbia, South Carolina will lecture on "A Brief Guide to South Carolina Genealogical Research and Records". Details of the program for this day will be found on page 58 of this issue.

The Alabama Genealogical Society offers a seminar on September 25, 1982 with two well-qualified speakers, Richard S. Lackey and Winston DeVille. Both gentlemen are Fellows of the American Society of Genealogists. Mr. Lackey's topics will be "Pioneer Americans on the Indian Frontier" and "Using Southern Land Records in Genealogical Research". Mr. DeVille will speak on "Anglo-American Research on the French and Spanish Frontier". Both gentlemen will discuss the subject "Publishing the Past". This event will be held at the Holiday Inn, Medical Center, in Birmingham, AL. For further information write the Society at Samford University Library, 800 Lakeshore Drive, Birmingham, AL 35229, attention/Betty Collins.

There is a correction for the price of Historical Highlights of Tennessee, compiled by Vernon Roddy. The price, as quoted in our last issue, should have included a 45¢ difference charge, making the total mail-order price $2.95. Also, the booklet contains a two-page introduction by Mr. Roddy and a 1795 TN map not previously cited.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Herman L. Bogan, Eleanor W. Griffin

MARRIAGES OF ROWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA 1753-1868 compiled by Brent H. Holcomb. 1981. Hard back. 506 pp. Indexed. Order from the Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 111 Water St., Baltimore, MD 21202. $28.00.

Rowan County was formed from Anson County in 1753 with boundaries of Virginia on the north and the Mississippi River on the west, covering about half of the present state of North Carolina and all of the state of Tennessee. This book contains abstracts of all extant marriage bonds which are found in the Archives at Raleigh. Grooms are arranged alphabetically. Brides, bondsmen, witnesses, ministers and Justices of the Peace are included in the index. This volume is valuable because of the great land area covered and the total span of 115 years.

OUR BALDRIDGE FOREBEARS AND SOME OF THEIR COLLATERAL LINES by Dr. Chester C. Kennedy. 1981. Hard back. 320 pp. Indexed. Order from author, Rt. 3, Box 486, Conway, AR 72032. $27.00.

This is primarily a study of William Baldridge and his wife Janette Holmes, who arrived with family in part in Pennsylvania sometime between 1726 and 1746 from Ireland. The author has taken their descendants down to the present day including collateral families as they married into the Baldridge family. Their progression cross-country is duly noted. Anyone with Scotch-Irish heritage will appreciate Dr. Kennedy's lucid and excellent analysis of the emigration of these people to this county.

PETITIONS OF THE EARLY INHABITANTS OF KENTUCKY TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA 1769-1792 by James Rood Robertson. 1914. New material copyright 1981. Hard back. 246 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $25.00.

These petitions were found in the Virginia State Archives in 1910. They are printed verbatim with the thought that they would be more useful and interesting to the researcher or student of history in the language of the pioneers. Footnotes are added to explain the purpose and subject matter. The names attached to the petitions have been separated from them and arranged in alphabetical order with numbers referring to the petitions on which they appear. The appearance of the original material from which they are copied may be seen in the facsimile of a petition from the settlers of Lincoln County. This one is better than average in form and preservation. Many are worn and the writing faded. The petitions are not all of equal importance. Some deal with personal affairs. Others throw light on matters of history. An excellent analysis is contained in a lengthy introduction.

WEAKLEY REMEMBERED (WEAKLEY COUNTY, TENNESSEE) VOL. I compiled by Pansy Nanney Baker and Charlotte Stout Reynolds. 1981. Soft back. 200 pp. Indexed. $15.00.

WEAKLEY REMEMBERED (WEAKLEY COUNTY, TENNESSEE) VOL. II compiled by Pansy Nanney Baker and Charlotte Stout Reynolds. 1981. Soft back. 159 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Baker, Rt. #5, Box 17, Martin, TN 38237. $16.50.

Included in Vol. I are grants for the years 1794-1844, tax list 1828 and 1843, will abstracts from 1828-1842, 1840-1861, and a guardian book. It is indexed both by places and surnames. A 4th of July speech in 1876 by one of the county's leading citizens, giving a description of the county and its inhabitants in the earliest days, makes for most interesting reading.

There are 127 Bible and family records listed in Vol. II and many pictures. Also included is an unusual journal started by Robert A. Wood (1849-1908) and carried on by several generations of his family. It has proved extremely accurate and some entries are priceless. Surnames mentioned are names common to the entire northern half of Weakley County from the mid to latter 1800's.

A HISTORY OF LAUDERDALE COUNTY, ALABAMA by Jill Knight Garrett. 1981. Soft back. 280 pp. Indexed. Order from The River Counties Publications, 610 Terrace Dr., Columbia, TN 38401. $10.00.

This is a revised edition of the original published in 1964. It is an excellent and very readable account of all aspects of life in the county. This includes the early settlement, towns and communities, early soldiers, occupations, troops and legends of the Civil War, churches, schools, homes, and a biographical directory. A listing of the early settlers, taken principally from the 1850 census, is presented in alphabetical order.

CENTURY REVIEW OF MAURY COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1807-1907 by D.P. Robbins. 1905. New material copy-right 1980. Hard back. 336 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $22.00.

This book was first produced to prepare the way for Maury County's Centennial celebration. In 1905 you could have purchased this book in its best binding for $2.50. That was quite a bargain because as the author said, it contained a condensation of the most important events of the past one hundred years, and descriptive sketches of the cities and villages, Columbia and Mt. Pleasant in detail, illustrations of many buildings, the agricultural and climactic advantages fully brought out, commercial, industrial, transportation, religious, educational and professional matters and a directory of the cities and mail list for 37 rural routes.

DEED BOOK I AMELIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA DEEDS 1735-1743 BONDS 1735-1741 abstracted and compiled by Gibson Jefferson McConnaughey. 1981. Soft back. 115 pp. Indexed. Order from Mid-South Publishing Co., P.O. Box 188, Amelia, VA 23002. $11.50 (VA residents add 42¢ state sales tax).

Included herein are names of all persons and places mentioned in Deed Book I in any capacity. In many instances names of landowners' wives are given. An example of content: Deed of Lease 1735, Samuel Bentley to John Bentley. Rent to be one ear of corn due and payable on Christmas Day; delinquent sum to be 50 pounds.

KENTUCKY BIBLE RECORDS VOL. VI compiled and edited by Emma Jane Walker and Virginia Stagner Farmer. 1981. Soft back. 190 pp. Indexed. Order from the Kentucky Records Publishing Committee, 1065 Merrick Dr., Apt. 155, Lexington, KY 40502. $15.00.

This is the sixth of the Bible records being published under the auspices of the Kentucky DAR. The records are from the files of the genealogical records committee of this organization and continues the genealogical work of the preceding five volumes. In some instances, narratives of family tradition and history is shared by those who presently possess these Bibles. This is an effective source of information for many researchers.

YALOBUSHA COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI MARRIAGE RECORDS 1833-1900 by Mrs. Cecil D. Briscoe and Mrs. William A. Jenkins. 1981. Soft back. Over 268 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Briscoe, 3223 Lyndale Ave., Memphis, TN 38112 or Mrs. Jenkins, 3112 E. Raines Rd., Memphis, TN 38112. $15.00.

Yalobusha County was erected in 1833 from the 1830 cession of territory that belonged to the Choctaw Indians. The name "Yalobusha" is an anglization of an Indian name. The county is located in the north-central part of Mississippi, surrounded by Panola, Lafayette, Calhoun, Granada, Leflore and Tallahatchie Counties. These marriage records were copied from microfilms of the original records found in the offices of Circuit Clerks in Coffeetown and Water Valley, the two county seats of the county. The marriage references are listed by volume and page number. Records taken from Water Valley have a 'W' following the page number. The authors have other books on Northern Mississippi Counties.

1860 CENSUS OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY, TENNESSEE transcribed by Patricia B. Kirkeminde. Soft back. 25 pp. Indexed. Order from Ms. Kirkeminde, Woodmere Mall, Crossville, TN 38555. $13.50.

Transcription was taken from microfilm of the original census. Transcriber cautions readers to read the index carefully because of the unique spelling of the census takers. Divided into districts, it is possible to check up on who lived next to whom.

PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION LISTS BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1538-1900 compiled by P. William Filby. 1981. Hard back. 195 pp. Indexed. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $45.00.

Your immigrant ancestor is probably listed in one of these published sources of persons arriving in the United States and Canada from 1538-1900. The unusual index is helpful in locating the area and time of arrivals and in naming the place of emmigration. This book is a complement to PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION LISTS INDEX which gives you the names of immigrants, ships, places, etc., covering 300 of the published sources. We understand other books of names are in the plans for printing in the near future.

TRUE TALES OF TIPTON, Historical Accounts of Tipton County, Tennessee by Gaylon Neil Beasley. 1981. Hard back. 197 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Tim Sloan, President Tipton County Historical Society, P.O. Box 808, Covington, TN 38019. $17.50.

Tipton County was formed in 1823 from the Western Purchase (Jackson Purchase). Covington has been the county seat from formation. The Mississippi River is the western boundry of the county and of the state of Tennessee. The book is a collection of historical stories about Tipton County, covering the county's history from 1823 to date of publication. They are well told and indicative of the times and events in the long history of the county. A brief outline of the history is chronologically arranged in such a manner that the stories support the development of the county. There are many supportive photographs. The genealogical searcher will find many names of people and their families.

CEMETERY RECORDS OF MARSHALL COUNTY, TENNESSEE by Timothy R. & Helen C. Marsh and Ralph D. Whitesell. 1981. Over 329 pp. Indexed. Order from Marsh Historical Publications, 912 Shelbyview Dr., Shelbyville, TN 37160. $20.00 Hard back, $18.00 Soft back.

All the marked graves known to be located in Marshall County are found in this book. This work combines and completes, through checking and correction, Ralph D. Whitesell's 1968 partial copy of Marshall County's cemeteries. Over 300 individual and separate cemeteries are listed. The book contains a cemetery name index in addition to a last name index. Marshall county was founded in 1836. The eastern portion was taken from Bedford County, the southern portion (south of Elk Ridge) from Lincoln County, the western portion from Maury County, and a small area containing Cornersville was added in 1870 which was taken from Giles County. A map of the county showing these different sections and additions is in the book.

McELYEA'S IN TRANSIT by Clara Hunt Miller. 1981. Soft back. 258 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 7910 Third St., Downey, CA 90241. $20.00.

The earliest record of the McElyea name is found in Pennsylvania in Adams County, where Laughlin and Mary McElyea and their son, John, are listed. Laughlin was born ca 1726 in Scotland or Ireland and came to America about 1751. He married Mary Bowers of York County, Pennsylvania where their six children were born. The family moved to Orange County, North Carolina 16 May 1771. The well-documented family history follows the McElyeas through the Revolutionary War in North Carolina and Virginia and in chronological order into Tennessee and Kentucky. Like other pioneer families, the McElyea family has spread over the nation, and one finds many names in this fine family history.

WILSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, WILLS, BOOKS 1-13, 1802-1850 by Thomas E. Partlow. 1981. Hard back. 240 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $25.00.

Wilson County is a pivotal county in the early settlement of Tennessee, and in the subsequent migration of people westward. It is a county possessing a wealth of as yet unpublished genealogical material. Wilson County records date back to the separation of the county from Sumner County in 1799. The records at the courthouse probably are as complete as any records to be found. These abstracts of wills and inventories cover the years 1802-January 1853 and include approximately 8,500 names. This book covers a sufficient period of time to span several generations. As a result, it is possible to take some families back three and four generations. Deeds, war records, letters, etc. are to be found; even such information as place of residence prior to Wilson County or the location of family members living elsewhere is sometimes given.

A HISTORY OF HICKMAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE by W. Jerome D. Spence and David L. Spence. 1900. New material copyright 1981. Hard back. 509 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $35.00.

A large number of the early explorers of what is now Hickman County came from the Cumberland settlements. The Spences have taken each of the fifteen districts and treated it separately, complete with names, stories, and geography. This is an excellent history with the added bonus of being quite readable. Extra chapters are: Our Legislators, Magistrates, Militia Officers, County and Court Officials, Soldiers, and Confederates.

MARRIAGES OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA 1753-1868 compiled by Brent H. Holcomb. 1981. Hard back. 431 pp. Full name index. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 111 Water St., Baltimore, MD 21202. $25.00.

This book is the third volume of the series dealing with the marriage records of North Carolina counties. This volume contains over 8,000 marriage bonds and mentions over 23,000 persons. The original bonds contain occasional lists of marriages performed by justices and ministers. Some of these marriages are not found elsewhere and are presented here. The lists are alphabetized by the groom's surname followed by the name of the bride, date of the marriage bond or official's return, or both, and the names of the clergymen, witnesses and bondsmen. The book is another of Holcomb's well done and timely genealogical publications.

THE REAGAN CLAN by Naydean Reagan Coe. Soft back. 145 pp. Indexed. Order from author, Rt. 4, Box 95A, Gravette, AR 72736. $12.50.

The Reagan Clan refers to descendants of Charles and Elizabeth Henry Reagan in a trail that extends from Shenandoah County, Virginia into East Tennessee through Kentucky and Missouri into Oklahoma. Charles Reagan was born in 1735 and died in Blount County, Tennessee in 1815. The author believes him to be descended from O'Regans who came to this country from Ireland. Included in The Reagan Clan are some families connected to the Reagans through marriages.

BENTON COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGE BOOK #1, 1846-1850 by James Douthat. 1981. Soft back. 15 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Douthat, 2504 Kell Rd., Signal Mtn., TN 37377. $6.00.

On the stage road from Nashville to Memphis about a mile west of Camden was the site of the first gathering of commissioners to form Benton County. Mentioned in a brief history of the county are some of the early settlers: Green Flowers, Ephriam Perkins, Lewis Brewer, George Camp, Benjamin Holland, John Anderson and James Wyly. Although this book only covers a four year span, it is of value to the researcher, giving the date the license was issued, date and name of the person performing the ceremony, and page number where such is found in the original book.

The family has a Baptist background and many were ministers. In 1981 Mr. Knowles added over 35 pages of Copeland family history, ancestor charts and family group sheets to this volume. Some other surnames mentioned are: Sloan, Nicholson, Amerson, Tollison, Moore, Grimes and Kirkland.

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS, TOMS BROOK AND VICINITY, SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VIRGINIA by Duane Lyle Borden. 1981. Soft back. 302 pp. Indexed. Order from compiler, 5995 West Arizona Ave., Denver, CO 80226. $15.00.

The seventeen cemeteries represented here are to be found in the lower Shenandoah Valley of Virginia between Woodstock, Virginia on the southwest, and Fishers Hill on the northeast, encompassing a fifteen mile stretch. There are 400 plus surnames and over 3500 individuals. Included is the BORDEN cemetery which is on a farm that is part of an original 400 acre land grant obtained by REINHARD HEINRICH BORDEN, the German immigrant on 25 April 1750. Cemetery records prove of great value in the search of our past. Sometimes the only existing clue to our ancestors is on these old stones.

SMITH COUNTY, TENNESSEE CEMETERIES NORTH OF THE CUMBERLAND RIVER compiled by Smith County Historical and Genealogical Society and Caney Fork Chapter, DAR. 1981. Hard back. 209 pp. Indexed. Order from Smith County, Tennessee Cemeteries, 504 Jackson Ave., Carthage, TN 37030. $20.50.

Smith County, Tennessee, divided by the Cumberland River, has two areas traditionally referred to as the North and South sides. This book contains the cemeteries located on the North side. With the exception of a few done by WPA workers in the 1930's, none of these had been recorded before. Included are those located in Carthage, the county seat: Ridgewood, Smith County Memorial Gardens, The Old City and Methodist, Walton, and Cedar Hill, the burying ground of the black community. Dixon Springs, an old and active cemetery, contains the graves of many early settlers and their descendants. The greater portion of the book consists of smaller active cemeteries and those located on private farms and remote areas of the county.

JOHNSTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA ABSTRACTS: DEED BOOKS E-1, Transcripts 2 & 3 (F-1, N-1, P-1, Q-1, R-1) 1764-1791 Vol. II by Weynette Parks Haun. 1981. Soft back. 211 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704. $25.00.

The deed books of Johnston County beginning the year 1746 (year of formation) to 1759 were destroyed in a fire. Also pages 1-187 of Deed Book B-1 are missing. As these burned and missing deeds appear to be mentioned in the following abstracts, a separate listing of referrals to deeds dated prior to 1763 is included in pages in front of the book. The original indices of the deed books also are included in this volume. The Granville Grants and North Carolina State Grants have been abbreviated by the clerks in the deed books. The author has included one complete Granville Grant and one complete North Carolina Grant.

PRESERVING YOUR AMERICAN HERITAGE by Norman E. Wright. 1981. Soft back. 285 pp. Indexed. Order from Brigham Young University Press, 208 University Bress Bldg., Provo, UT 84602. $9.95.

This present work is an extensive revision of BUILDING AN AMERICAN PEDIGREE published in 1974. The author, whose family numbers twelve children, invites you to join in one of the most interesting quests you will ever undertake - that of discovering and preserving your heritage through a study of family and local history. He shows you how to start and what to look for. Covered in depth are all sorts of records, which if read carefully will be of immense value to the beginning researcher as well as the more seasoned one. If you are a veteran, stumped on a problem, take time to read this book.

OLD ALBERMARLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, PASQUOTANK PRECINCT (COUNTY) BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, DEATHS, BRANDS AND FLESH MARKS, & COUNTY CLAIMS 1691-1833 by Weynette Parks Haun. 1981. Soft back. 82 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704. $10.00.

This book provides an excellent source for early records in this county. The volume was transcribed from the microfilm record, and all names have been included and are in caps. Often the former state and county residence is mentioned in the record. In many instances the marriage and births of children are given at the same time. There are a few wills scattered throughout the records. The variety of Brands and Marks show the creativity of our ancestors and relationships of owners of the stock e.g.: "Vollentine Row Records a mark for his son Dempsey as follows, towit, An under slope in the right ear & an under kell in the left ear recorded the 14th day of March 1760."

Compiled by Jessie Taylor Webb

DESCENDANTS OF IMMIGRANT SAMUEL TAYLOR - Contributed by Mrs. L. S. Orrick, 3629
Wedgway, Fort Worth, TX 76133

The immigrant, Samuel Taylor, arrived in Yorktown, VA in 1764. He married a widow whose maiden name was Anna VANNAH and they survived the siege of Yorktown during the Revolutionary War. Other than the fact that they had two known sons, little else is known of them. Son, Arthur, migrated to Norfolk where he married, reared a family and accumulated much property. Son, Nathaniel, continued life in Yorktown, married and reared a family there.

ARTHUR TAYLOR, whose estate was settled in 1855, married Mary EMMETT, daughter of Abram Emmett and Mary EARL. They had four children:

1. Mary Emmett Taylor - born 1800; married Commander Edmund Pendleton KENNEDY and they had a son, Charles H. Kennedy.
2. Robert Earl Taylor - died prior to 1838; married Elizabeth Ann CORNICK and had one daughter, Elizabeth Roberta Earl Taylor, who married Niles SELDEN.
3. Caroline Virginia Taylor - born 1811, was still living in 1838. She married, first, George James BYRD, by whom she had three children: George Virginius Byrd, Richard W. Byrd and Virginia Byrd. By her second marriage to Dr. George W. CODWISE, she had two more children: Virginia Codwise and Georgiana Codwise.
4. Georgiana Alexander Taylor - born 1813; died prior to 1838; married John McLELAND and had one daughter, Georgiana McLeland.

NATHANIEL TAYLOR was married first to Lucy WHITE, and they had four sons:

1. Dr. William Vannah Taylor (1790-1876) - more later
2. Arthur Taylor, Jr. - born 1796; moved to Norfolk, VA and married Ann B. SAUNDERS by whom he had five children: Lucy Ann Taylor born 1819; John S. Taylor born 1820; William Vannah Taylor born 1825; Elizabeth Taylor born 1832; James Arthur Taylor born 1833.
3. Nathaniel Taylor, Jr. - (1802-1876) became Postmaster of Yorktown, VA. By his first marriage to Mildred WILLS, he had Nathaniel A. Taylor (1832-1897) and Eleanor Taylor born 1833. By his second marriage to Mrs. Elizabeth FOX, he had a daughter, Virginia H. Taylor born 1838.
4. Dr. Alexander Hamilton Taylor (1805-1858) attended Wake Forest, NC Medical School and Jefferson College in Philadelphia, PA. He married Sara ALSTON and had five children: Nathaniel Alexander Taylor (1835-1913), who was a writer, went to Texas and served in C.S.A. He married Virginia Cary CURTIS.
