A YOUNG GIRL'S CIVIL WAR DIARY - Contributed by Mary McKim, 28 S. Morrison #3
Memphis, Tn 38104

What does a teenage girl, who is 16,17,18,19 years of age during the Civil War and lives with her family in a rural area but near a city, do with her time? How does the war influence their daily lives?

This diary was kept by Miss Jane (Jannie) E. HALL who was born 25 Feb 1846 and was the daughter of Hinton Hall, born North Carolina, and his wife, Richard Jane SNEAD. R. Jane was the daughter of Alexander and Jane Snead who were born in Virginia. Hinton and Jane were married 20 Jan 1842 in Shelby Co TN. According to the 1860 Shelby Co TN census, Hinton was 50 years old, Jane 41, Jane E. 14, A.R. (Roland) 12, Antoinette (Nettie) 10, Caladonia 7 and Emet N. 5. Jannie Hall married 11 Apr 1867 Shelby Co TN to William D. JENNINGS b 14 May 1836 Marion Co TN. His parents were Nathaniel Jennings of North Carolina and Mary CRAIG of Tennessee, who moved to Dardanelle, AR, Yell County in 1850. The children of Jannie and William were William H., Lizzie, Wallace, Edgar, Maud and Orella.

Jannie tells in the diary about visits to and from neighbors, friends and relatives. Her grandparents were still living and she talks about Snead cousins, Glenn cousins at Big Creek and an Uncle Jo BOND. Since all of these people can be easily found in the 1860 Shelby Co TN census in the 6th Civil District around Raleigh, there is no need to list the many people she mentions. They had lots of activities of work and play as the following excerpts will reveal. The diary was written from 1 Apr 1863 to Jan 1865 with some entries of later dates. Besides relating their daily life, it chronicles how the Federal occupation affected the citizens.

Spelling and punctuation were changed to conform to modern usage, but the phrasing has not been altered. No notation was made when dates or entries were omitted.

4 Apr 1863 - Lt. Glenn, Lt. Balch and Cousin Lee Glenn came and stayed all night with us. That was the first time that I ever did see Lt. Balch. We promised to go to Mrs. Neely's that night and sit until bedtime but we could not get the Lieutenant to go. He was too bashful.

16 Apr 1863 - Miss Sallie and Miss Addie told me the yankees had Lt. Glenn and Lt. Balch. Miss Addie came home with me and went to Mr. Buck's and told them about it and to Mr. Day's and then to Aunt Alice. I came home with Pa. I heard this - that they were sent to Memphis. Alice came back and stayed all night with me and we had such a nice time. I went to write a love letter but Alice would not let me so we retired.

17 Apr 1863 - I went to school today. Two gentlemen came on their way to Dixie. I am in hopes they will get there safe. They did look so sorrowful. I was sorry for them.

18 Apr 1863 - Alvis Glenn came in. We were afraid the yankees would get him. We sat up all night with him. He left early in the morning. Poor fellow, I wish I knew where he was.

21 Apr 1863 - I stayed all night with Georgia Greenborn last night. When I came home this morning Miss Addie, Miss Massy Coleman and Miss Sallie were here. They told me that some of Burrow's men had been here. They were on their way to Dixie. They did not come in.

25 Apr 1863 - Mrs. Day, Ma, Cousin Lee and myself went to Memphis today. Lt. Glenn and Lt. Balch were not there. I gave Capt. Burrow a large cake and gave Dunk

McColum one and we gave several of them some bouquets. I could not keep from showing tears when I saw Capt. Burrow. He did look so bad. After we left there we had one Ambrotype taken. We went by Mrs. Mabson's.

27 Apr 1863 - I went to school today. This evening the yankees came after horses. I got on the pony and rode him to Uncle's.

28 Apr 1863 - I took the pony to Uncle's this morning and hid him from the yankees and after I came home they passed on and went to Mr. Luxton's and got one of his horses and after school was out I went and got the pony.

30 Apr 1863 - Miss Addie and myself went to Parson Burrow's place and got some flowers. We was afraid we would meet the yankees but we did not. I went down to the pond with a white flag. They called in yankees but they were mistaken. We were Confeds.

3 May 1863 - Miss Julia, Alice, Nettie, Roland and Lee went to Parson Burrow's place this morning and got some flowers and while we were there the Yankees came and wanted to know whose place that was. We came back and while I was at the Coleman's the yankees came and asked if they had seen any government horses. They did not stay long.

6 May 1863 - It has rained all day. Mr. Bryant and the girls came from Memphis this evening. A regiment of yankees spent the day in Raleigh yesterday. Somebody stole Mrs. Neely's horse last night. I heard that they were fighting at Grand Gulf.

8 May 1863 - Yankees came to Mrs. Coleman's. [Halls' next door neighbors]

10 May 1863 - Miss Mary, Alice, Thomas and myself went to church today in our little wagon. We had a nice time. There were several yankees there in the evening. They were at Mrs. Coleman's after government horses.

16 May 1864 - The Federal account. Rebel prisoners captured from the beginning of the war until today: 1 Lt. Gen.; 5 Maj. Gen.; 25 Brigadier Gen.; 186 Colonels; 146 Lt. Col.; 844 Majors; 2497 Captains; 50,811 lieutenants; 165,063 non-commissioned officers; 121,156 privates and 5800 citizens. Of these we had on hand at the date of the report 29,229 officers and men among whom were one Maj. Gen. and 7 Brigadiers. There have been 121,937 rebels exchanged against 110,866 Union men returned. The exchanges of officers on both sides are computed at their exchangeable value in privates. Copied from the Monday morning news May the 16th 1864. Oak Grove Seminary near Memphis wrote by J.E. Hall Memphis, Tenn.

J.E. Hall professed Religion at the Chapel on the 29 day of September and joined the Church at Pleasant Hill 8th of November in the year 1863 and Fee [Feidon Glenn]. 4th of November. I was 17 years old 8 months 2 weeks.

2 Mar 1864 - Five Federals came to the gate. Pa went to see what they wanted. We let them have two chickens. They paid 20 cents for the two. Four went to Mrs. Coleman's and took two pieces of meat. After they left one came and took one of her horses and left his horse there. Late in the evening four more came to Mrs. Coleman's and said that they wanted a drink of water. They got on their horses and went and robbed some wagons that had come from Memphis.

3 Mar 1864 - Early this morning twenty-six Federals passed. They camped at Mr. Pope's last night.

4 Mar 1864 - Four Federals came early this morning and taken one ham and two dozen eggs from Ma. Miss Julia and I went down to Uncle Will's and the Federals was there and we came back home and eat our dinner and we see them coming we got on our horse and rode off from the gate and here they come just as hard as they could come after us. We stopped until they come and they said that they thought it was Guerrillas. We laughed at them. They could not say one word.

THOMAS AND ANNA (MEADOR) SIMMONS CEMETERY - Submitted by Mr. Vernon Roddy,
204 Andrews Avenue, Hartsville, TN 37074

Mr. Roddy copied this cemetery of about thirty to fifty-five graves with only eight tombstones on 3 Jun 1987. The U.S. Geological Survey topographic map (1958) calls this cemetery the "Draper Cemetery". It is located on an eminence just south of the Doctor Hollow branch of Long Creek of Big Barren River; four and one-half miles northwest of Lafayette, TN; approximately 0.8 mile northeast of Long Creek Missionary Baptist Church House; about 0.95 mile southwest of Pleasant Hill General Baptist Church House and approximately 0.75 mile on the "old Harve DRAPER place" now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Olie MEADOR of Macon Co TN.

The SIMMONS and Meador families in this pioneer cemetery migrated to this part of Tennessee from the vicinity of Franklin Co VA during the early 1800's. Macon County was formed from three-fourths of Smith and one-fourth of Sumner in 1842.

Those assigned to survey and divide the land were: Daniel CLIBURN, Joel Simmons, Job Meador, Anthony EPPERSON and James Meador.

MOSES HENRY, WAR OF 1812 - Contributed by Capitola S. Henry (Mrs. R. Truman)
2145 Benton St., Denver, CO 80214

Mrs. Henry was reading in the "Ansearchin'" News, Volume 1-6, 1954-59, page 66, the article about the Natchez Expedition, 1813, when she noticed the name of her husband's great, great grandfather, Moses HENRY, in Troop #3, Capt. Baskerville. It was stated that this four page list was in Gen. Coffee's papers.

She has sent us additional information on this family. Moses was the son of David Henry and Margaret HALL, daughter of William and Elizabeth Hall of Iredell Co NC. David moved his family from North Carolina to Sumner Co TN in 1800. He was in the Revolutionary War and received his pension in Robertson Co TN stating that in 1832 he was of age 81. David was still living in 1840. Moses Hall Henry was their sixth child, born 4 Mar 1791, Iredell Co NC. About 1821 he married Nancy Jane KEY (called Jinsey), daughter of William Key and Elizabeth GAINES of Sumner Co TN. In 1843 Moses moved his family to Todd Co KY and later to Washington Co IL.

Among other persons listed in Capt. Baskerville's troop were Lemuel STUBBLEFIELD who married Moses' sister, Jean (or Jane); Macklin Key who was probably a relative of Moses' wife; Thomas YOUNG - the Youngs married into the Henry family; and David Hall and Lemuel Hall who were probably relatives of Moses' mother, Margaret.

PETITIONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF TENNESSEE
Abstracted from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm
Roll No. 3, Legislative Petitions 1805-1812

8-1-1812    Petition of Hugh KENNEDY of Knox County for a divorce from Eleanor WALKER Kennedy. They were married in 1807 but "about six months after the said marriage the said Eleanor was delivered of a child which she readily then, and always since acknowledges to be the child of another man." (1 page)

9-1-1812    Petition of David MAGNESS for release from prison. At November 1810 Term of the Circuit Court of Williamson County, he was tried along with Jonathan MAGNESS and Peregrine MAGNESS for the murder of Patton ANDERSON and was found guilty of manslaughter. He was sentenced to eleven months in prison and until the costs of prosecution were paid. The eleven months expired in October 1811, but he is insolvent and cannot pay the costs which amount to $800. Attested by Thos DILLAHUNTY and Thomas WILLIAMSON on 9 Sep 1812.

Petition of Jonathan MAGNESS for release from prison. In October 1810 he was indicted by the Grand Jury in the Circuit Court of Bedford County for the murder of Patton ANDERSON and immediately imprisoned. The case was removed to Williamson County in November 1810 and delayed until May 1811, and again until November 1811. In May 1812 he was acquitted, as can be proved "by Mr. CANNON one of the members of your Honorable body, who was one of the Jury." (6 pages)

10-1-1812    Petition of David REID to clear title to land. He entered 100 acres in Wilson County, lived on it 7 or 8 years, paid taxes, cleared and fenced about 30 acres and built "Cabbins" and orchards. "Before I could secure me a warrant a Mr. James CARLIN took the advantage of the Preference Law, but no grant has ished yet for the land." 4 Sep 1812 (1 page)

11-1-1812    Petitions of citizens of Robertson County to rescind a law passed "...at the last session of the Legislature of this State at Knoxville 1811." The law was to levy a tax on citizens of Robertson County to build a jail in Springfield. Reasons given for the request are: the citizens did not consent; the line between Tennessee and Kentucky was indefinite, making the location uncertain; with the government at war, and citizens should support that war." ## FRANCIS ASBURY'S TRAVELS IN TENNESSEE

By Betsy Foster West(Continued from Summer issue)

Although the year 1800 had closed on a seemingly dejected, despondent and ailing man, Bishop Francis Asbury appeared to have been rejuvenated by holding a South Carolina Conference in Camden. He states that the preachers were "richly accommodated" at the Rev. Isaac Smith's, at Carpenter's, and at two other houses, so his health was somewhat restored. His financial burden was lightened when he discovered, "We only failed forty-eight dollars in paying all the preachers their demands." He had "admitted four probationers; re-admitted two deacons to their standing in the travelling connexion, who had left it to locate; located three, to wit, Benjamin Blanton, Josiah Cole, and Llewellyn Evans; and re-stationed Robert Gains, Rufus Wiley and William West, who had all located themselves in the course of the last year." So his task force had slightly increased. He said, "We had great union; it is true some talked loud; but I dare not say these was any improper heat." Asbury faced his remaining major problems, discontent in Philadelphia and reaction to his "Address" on anti-slavery, by spending two days "writing many long letters to my correspondents in the north."

There was not much time spent in Camden, for on January 9th 1801 the two bishops, Asbury and Whatcoat, were riding and preaching again. They spent the spring months in North Carolina and Virginia, and the summer months in Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland (Asbury, much of the time with a painful, lame foot). On August 28th they formulated a plan of travel in which Bishop Whatcoat and Sylvester Hutchinson were to visit the eastern conferences and Bishop Asbury and Nicholas Snethen, the western conference. All were to meet in Camden, South Carolina.

It took almost a month for Asbury and Snethen to travel from Frederick, Maryland down the Shenandoah Valley to Saltville, where his old friend, "the widow Russell", was their hostess. Crossing Clinch Mountain, they lodged with Francis Browning at Elk Garden, and dined with Richard Price. They rode to "Castle's woods" (Castlewood), rested at Charles Bickley's for a day, and proceeded to the Copper Creek meeting in the cabin known as Owen's Chapel.

25 Sep 1801 - "To Copper Creek meeting, fifteen miles. We had mountains, valleys, and rocks, as usual. There was a cabin, but we delivered our testimony in the woods. After meeting and refreshing our horses with a bite, we pushed on to Moccasin Creek, crossing it nine times in about five miles: the roads were rough, as usual, and the fords at the streams, rocks - loose or sideling and slippery. We lodged at William Lawson's."

26 Sep 1801 - "We wrought down Moccasin (Creek) to the Gap, where the accumulated waters of the stream have, at some time, apparently burst their way through Clinch Mountain. After re-crossing the north branch of Holston, we stopped at John Wadley's and refreshed man and beast. Our host became our guide and tripped over the hills with us in the rain, his mare barefoot and himself without a saddle to ride on, or a great coat to shield him from the weather. At length we reached Charles Baker's, upon Main Holston, in safety. I began to feel and to fail. I have ridden about one hundred miles in the last four days, the roads equal to any in the United States for badness. My bowels and my poor horse's back are in bad order. How much time we have to read, and write, and pray, those who travel with us may judge."

Asbury and Snethen had entered Tennessee, using the northern route of the bishop's previous trips, coming from Kingsport eastward to the home of Charles Baker near Blountsville. Asbury had visited here as early as 1792. The purpose of this trip was to hold a conference for the East Tennessee churches at Ebenezer in Greene County.

28 Sep 1801 - "Attended by John Watson, we crossed Holston and Watauga, near the junction and came to Dungworth's."

29 Sep 1801 - "I preached upon 2 Timothy 4:7-8 and then rode on through Jonesborough to Cashe's."

30 Sep 1801 - "I spoke on Hebrew 2:1 and hasted on to Ebenezer to attend the conference...Nicholas Snethen gave us two sermons...We ordained on Friday, Saturday and Sabbath day...."

Asbury reports that this meeting was held in the woods and attracted a large congregation. Although he mentioned ordination at this time, he did not give the names of the persons ordained.

5 Oct 1801 - "We parted in great love. Our company made twelve miles to Isaiah Harrison's, and next day reached the Warm Springs upon French Broad River."

No information is given on Isaiah Harrison, but he probably was a Tennessean if he lived within twelve miles of Ebenezer Church. Asbury used the same route into North Carolina that he had used the previous November. This nine-day visit was the only time he spent in Tennessee in 1801.

Pressing on across the western frontier of the Carolinas, Asbury and Snethen reached Edgefield, South Carolina on 29 Oct 1801.

30 Oct 1801 - "We came in haste to Daniel Baugh's; here we met Bishop Whatcoat, Sylvester Hutchinson, who had come along rapidly...Now we formed a plan for future labours and travel...Bishop Whatcoat should go from the center, east to Savannah and St. Mary's; whilst I go west, in Georgia."

After spending the next six weeks in Georgia, Asbury and Snethen returned to South Carolina where on 17 Dec 1801 he wrote: "In Georgia, 'I groaned, being burdened'; but my congregations were considerably larger, my rides shorter, and the people abundantly more feeling and fervent than they are here. I have ridden eighty sandhill miles: the weather is very changeable; I feel my old age and infirmities; my eyes and feet are feeble; but, glory to God! I have strong faith for myself and for the prosperity of Zion..."

The South Carolina Conference was held in Camden, where, on 1 Jan 1802, seven elders and seven deacons (all unnamed) were ordained. On January 6th, Asbury and Snethen loaded saddlebags, mounted their horses and "rode through heavy damps and dews" northward. By February 14th they had crossed North Carolina and were entering Virginia. The spring and summer months were given to travel as far northeast as Maine, and September found Asbury again riding down the Shenandoah Valley.

It appears that the bishop had been travelling without a permanent assistant for some time. His entry of August 25th remarks that "Edward Matthews was intended for my companion to the Holston district, but two of the preachers had been sick, and the other was removed..." so apparently Matthews had to remain in Virginia, and local preachers accompanied the bishop to the next church, or else he rode alone. As he and a travelling companion neared Tennessee he wrote:

10 Sep 1802 - "We came to Charles Hardy's, upon Holston...Fourteen or fifteen times have I toiled over the mighty mountains, and nearly twenty years have we laboured upon Holston; and lo! the rage of wild and Christian savages is tamed, and God hath glorified himself."

11 Sep 1802 - "I rode to the Salt Works - perhaps for the last time. Alas! there is little salt here, and when Sister Russell is gone, will there be any left? But, a few miles from the works, up the middle ridge, they have built a meeting house, and there is a revival of religion."

Asbury was visiting his old friend, the widow Russell, in Saltville, VA and the "salt" he refers to above was not the salt mined from the earth, but the Biblical "salt of the earth." The new meeting house was built in Washington Co, VA on land sold by David and Sarah Smith to the Methodist Church for $1.00. Asbury's entry continues:

"I make my calculation upon four thousand nine hundred miles from July 30, 1801 to September 12, 1802. If a living man and a Christian might dare to complain."

13 Sep 1802 - "I rode alone to Edward Coxe's near Shote's ford, upon Holston. On Tuesday and Wednesday we rested, and on Thursday we rode to Cashe's near Jonesboro, Tennessee."

17 Sep 1802 - "I attended a camp meeting which continued to be held four days; there may have been fifteen hundred souls present...The heat, the restless nights, the water, or it may be all of these combined, make me sick indeed. I crossed Nollichucky at the fording place of Col. George Gallespie, who very kindly rode over with me and held my hand. Main Holston was before me; I came safe over and stopped with Felix Earnest, making ninety miles this week. I take Fothergill's medicine. I can feel quite resigned to end my days here; thereby, I shall avoid great labours and trials for the coming year."

19 Sep 1802 - "The house at Ebenezer would not hold the people, so from my stand in the woods, I spoke from Genesis 32:26-28. I was very unwell..."

20 Sep 1802 - "I was weak and very unwell. We rode down to Greenville, when I took a little breakfast. It was extraordinary that a man who was quite a stranger to me appeared very uneasy when he found that we had paid the landlady, it being his wish to bear the expense, and have our money returned to us - his name is Cox. The day was warm. We came on to Little Nollichucky, and lodged at Edward Warrens."

Asbury probably left Jonesboro on a road shown on the 1832 Rhea map, the only road leading southwest out of that town. It follows Little Limestone Creek past Washington College and, crossing Nollichucky near the Greene County line, runs on the south side of the river in an arc across Greene County. Felix Earnest lived east of Greenville on the Nollichucky and Edward Warren at Warrensburgh, a town shown on the Little Chucky River, not far from its junction with Nollichucky.

21 Sep 1802 - "At Bethel I spoke on Ephesians 4:1-3. We had a close, sultry day, a small house, and a crowded congregation; an open time, and the triumph of truth."

22 Sep 1802 - "We rode to M'Cleary's upon French Broad, below the mouth of Nollichucky - between forty and fifty miles."

Bethel was a popular name for churches, and with no more identification from Asbury, it is difficult to locate. Exact location of McCleary's is also uncertain, but Asbury's clues seem to fit a statement made in FRENCH BROAD - HOLSTON COUNTRY, A History of Knox County, TN, edited by Mary U. Rothrock. Speaking of the county court minutes, the writer says on page 62, "The first entry noted, relating to ferries, was on May 6, 1794, when the court granted the petitions of James Harralson and Abraham McCleary to keep public ferries at their landings on the Holston and French Broad respectively."

23 Sep 1802 - "We dined at Francis Ramsay's & lodged at Knoxville with my old friend Mr. Greer."

Francis Ramsey's stone mansion was long a landmark at the juncture of Holston and French Broad. Asbury had been entertained there on 2 Nov 1800. A plan of Knoxville, drawn for the Knox County history mentioned above, shows lot #56 purchased by Greer. It is located at the southwest corner of the intersection of present day Church and Market Streets.

24 Sep 1802 - "I rode to the Grassy Valley and next day preached at the quarterly meeting at Muddy Creek."

Grassy Valley in Knox County lies between Black Oak Ridge and Sharp's

Ridge and gives rise to the headwaters of Adair's Creek and First Creek. In 1885 a Methodist camp ground was located there, and a Knoxville newspaper described it as Fountain Head Camp Ground, 5½ miles north of Knoxville near the Jacksboro-Tazewell Turnpike. A history of the Fountain City Methodist Episcopal Church says that Fountain Head was a "preaching place" as early as 1825, but Asbury had some reason for going there in 1802. Perhaps he knew John Adair, who had settled there in 1791.

It was on a Friday that Asbury rode to Grassy Valley; "the next day", Saturday, he went to Muddy Creek. On the 1832 map, the only Muddy Creek shown in this area lies east of Knoxville in Jefferson County. Modern maps indicate that this Muddy Creek now lies beneath Douglas Lake. The 1958 editors say that "the quarterly meeting at Muddy Creek" was held at the home of John Winton, whom Asbury had ordained 31 Oct 1800, and that Muddy Creek was seventeen miles "below" [downstream?] Knoxville. Later notes on John Winton tell us that he had moved from Pine Chapel in Jefferson County, TN between Newport and Dandridge before 1795, and had settled on Muddy Creek twenty miles west of Knoxville where he died 2 Aug 1846. He is buried in Muddy Creek Cemetery.

The Journal entry of September 24th continues:

"Roan County: my subject was Col. 1:9-10. On the Sabbath day we had sacrament and love feast in the woods. At eleven o'clock I spoke on John 3:16. I was unwell; and the congregation were, to appearance, cold and not in the spirit of prayer as I could have wished. I dined with Mr. Ramsay, a Presbyterian minister, at his own house on Friday, and he with me today at my lodgings; we had quite a Christian interview."

Having capsuled a whole weekend's activity under one dateline, Asbury casually mentions another county, "Roan", which lies west of Knoxville. He seems to have used Greer's home as headquarters and to have returned to Knoxville between trips. The Rev. Ramsey, with whom he dined, was Samuel Ramsey, a brother of Francis Ramsey. Samuel lived at Ebenezer, eleven miles west of Knoxville and about two miles south of Kingston Pike.

27 Sep 1802 - "We made toward West Point, and lodged at Mr. Clark's for the night; in the morning we started in good spirits. We were somewhat shaken in going the old path down Spencer's Hill; I walked fearing every moment a fall for myself or for my horse; it was a very noxious evening to me. It was late when we arrived at Obed River, and I imprudently lay too far from our encampment fire, and took a cold, which fixed upon my throat. Late in the evening we came to Shaw's, where we lay upon the floor. I was sick indeed."

This miserable trip west began at Kingston, formerly called South West Point, and continued from present-day Rockwood to Monterey, retracing the 1800 trip in reverse. The 1958 editors say that the encampment where the bishop lay too far from the fire was evidently near Standing Stone, now Monterey; and that Shaw lived near Carthage.

30 Sep 1802 - "We called at Prim's, and continued on to Dr. Tooley's. My throat worse and worse. I was unable to swallow. Next day we stopped awhile at Blackman's and proceeded on to James Douglas's. I had an awful night."

Prim and Blackman are not identified, but Dr. Henry Tooley lived at present-day Cage's Bend on the north side of Cumberland and northwest of Carthage. On 23 Oct 1800, Asbury had stayed with James Douglas at his home at the Salem Camp Ground near Gallatin.

2 Oct 1802 - "We rode forward to Station Camp and found the conference seated. By this time my stomach and speech were pretty well gone. I applied to Mr. William Hodge and Mr. William McGee, Presbyterian ministers, to supply my lack of public service...I was able to ordain by employing brother McKendree to examine those who were presented, and to station the preachers...The conference adjourned on Tuesday."

6 Oct 1802 - "I rested. After eight days' suffering of severely acute pain, the inflammation descended to my feet."

8 Oct 1802 - "I rested at Shaw's and bled for the third time, and applied bandages of sugar of lead to my feet."

At Dr. Tooley's I was attacked in the knee with a most torturing pain, attended with a swelling; the use of both my feet I had almost entirely lost before. On Saturday we rode fifteen miles to Prim's. I stopped to rest at Mr. Walton's; at the forks of Cumberland River; here I was treated with great attention and kindness. At Prim's brother McKendree preached; I also spoke...John Watson followed..."

Following this third session of the Western Conference, Asbury was turning back eastward, accompanied by William McKendree, who at this time was Presiding Elder of the Kentucky District, and John Watson, a preacher, who had first ridden with Asbury in September 1801.

The mention of Shaw on October 8th seems out of place, although no note of it was taken in the 1958 edition. It's possible that there was one Shaw in the Gallatin area, and another at Carthage; it's also possible that the bishop intended to name another person. He was obviously in great pain, which is reason enough for confusion, and one begins to wonder if Dr. Tooley was not a medical doctor. "Mr. Walton" is Col. William Walton, founder of Carthage. For more information on him, and on the whole upper Cumberland area, see Vernon Roddy's The Lost Town of Bledsoesborough, Tenn. 1984. There is a ten day gap in the date of this entry and the next one.

18 Oct 1802 - "We took our departure at five o'clock and rode to Shaw's, where we got corn in the ear at a dollar per bushel. We continued on until half-past six o'clock, then stopped, struck a fire, and encamped under a heavy mountain dew, which, when the wind shook the trees, fell like rain upon us. Brother M'Kendree made me a tent of his own and John Watson's blankets, and happily saved me from taking cold whilst I slept about two hours under my grand marquee. Brother M'Kendree threw his cloak over the limb of a tree; and he and his companion took shelter underneath and slept also. I will not be rash; I dare not be rash in my protestations against any country; but I think I will nevermore brave the wilderness without a tent."

19 Oct 1802 - "After riding fifty miles, a part of ninety-three miles in two days, we came about eight o'clock to West Point. An accident, extraordinary in the manner, and desperate in the effect, happened to me. At a rocky run, in attempting to dismount, my horse gave a sudden turn, and swung me against the rocks in the stream - the rude shock to my tender feet made me roar bitterly. My horse was low before, tender-footed, and tired - the hills were steep and rugged, and I was sore by riding - these circumstances caused so much pain, that when we came on Wednesday (20 Oct 1802) to the Grassy Valley, I cast anchor, with a determination to give up Georgia, and go by a straight line to Camden conference, to be held January 1, 1803."

"I sent word to James Douthet to explain to the elders of Georgia and South Carolina my situation. I also despatched John Watson to meet brother Snethen and give him my plan...but behold brother Snethen had had a fall from his horse, and was left lame upon the road! I have been sick for twenty-three days...My dear M'Kendree had to lift me up and down from my horse, like a helpless child...I could not have slept but for the aid of laudanum...I am no longer young - I cannot go out as at other times...I have ridden about five thousand, five hundred miles; and in the midst of it all I am comforted with the prospects of the western conference - we have added three thousand members this year, have formed Cumberland into a district, and have sent a missionary to the Natchez."

24 Oct 1802 - "For three days past I have been at John Winton's. By the aid of a chair on which to kneel, I preached at the meeting..."

25 Oct 1802 - "I rode through Knoxville, and came to Francis Ramsey's, and by losing ourselves, we increased the distance to thirty-two miles. Next day we gained Justus Huffacre's. I was happy to hear that my lame brother Snethen had gone limping on to attend my appointments in Georgia."

30 Oct 1802 - "We have been at our friend Huffacre's since Tuesday last."

31 Oct 1802 - "At Rehoboth upon French Broad, William M'Kendree stood up to speak...I ordained Justus Huffacre, and James Sullivan deacons..."

Justus Huffacre (formerly Halfacre) lived at Rehoboth near Seven Islands in the French Broad River near the Knox/Sevier county lines.

1 Nov 1802 - "The snow being in the mountains, and the wind at west, we had a cold ride to Little Pigeon, Sevier County. At Mitchell Porter's, I spoke to a full house...M'Kendree followed..."

Mitchell Porter lived three miles south of Sevierville on present Highway #71 near Porter's Chapel. He was a Revolutionary soldier and is buried in Shiloh Cemetery, now called Zion Cemetery.

2 Nov 1802 - "We rode through Newport, the capital of Cocke County, forded French Broad at Shine's Ferry and came, cold and without food for man or beast, to John O'Haver's; but, O, the kindness of our open-hearted, open-handed friends."

3 Nov 1802 - "We laboured over the Ridge and the Paint Mountain...eighteen miles contented us and we stopped at William Neilson's, Warm Springs."

Asbury had travelled this same road from Newport south to Warm Springs in November of 1800. William McKendree had been accompanying the bishop since the conference in Sumner County, but once over the mountains, and into Asheville, he parted with the bishop and returned to his district in Kentucky. Asbury continued his travels, accompanied by James Lowery, "an agreeable, pious youth" from Buncombe County, who later became Colonel Lowery, a prominent citizen and influential Methodist. He was a half-brother to Governor David L. Swain.

The bishop preached at every opportunity as he crossed South Carolina and finally on December 30th he rode to Camden for the conference of January 1803.

CHARLOTTE McCAIN, REVOLUTIONARY WAR WIDOW

District Telegraph and State Sentinel, Jackson, TN - December 14, 1838, p. 4, col.2.

INFORMATION WANTED: I, the widow of Wm McCain, dec'd, who was a soldier of the Revolution and suffered much in the struggle for independence, desirous of proving my marriage and procuring a pension from the U.S., wish to gain information respecting the residence of any relations in order to establish the fact. My parents emigrated about the year 1783 from Orange Co., N.Y. to the western states of Kentucky. My father's name was Thomas JOHNSON, and my mother's maiden name Susan PARPINO; our family consisted of several children; my brothers' names were John, Benjamin and George Johnson. Should any of them see this notice, they will write immediately and say where they are.

Editors in the Union will please give this two or three insertions for the benefit of an indigent widow, who suffered much herself for freedom.

Charlotte McCain

MUSTER ROLL OF 2nd REGIMENT (CHEATHAM'S) WEST TENNESSEE MILITIA

Contributed by Russell P. Baker
 6525 Magnolia Dr., Mabelvale, AR 72103

This company, also known as Capt. William Creel's Company, Col. A. Cheatham's Regt. of West Tennessee Militia Inf., was mustered in on 28 Jan 1814 and mustered out on 10 May 1814. "Each non-commissioned officer, musician and private travelled 160 miles in marching to Fayetteville, where mustered in, and returning to their residence in Davidson County." It was made up of men from Davidson, Williamson and Maury Counties.

Mr. Baker is a descendant of Edmund Baker, a Maury/Lewis County man, who died in Mississippi about 1845.

BOOK REVIEWS

*Reda T. Duckworth, Jane C. Hollis, Wanda C. James,
Marilyn D. Kimberling, William R. Phillips and Robert D. Tice*

RAULSTON & RUSSELL GENEALOGY by Barbara Gonce Clepper. 1986. Soft cover. 8½x11. x + 240 pp. Indexed. $30.00. Order from the author: 406 Wilson Dam Ave., Sheffield, AL 35660.

The book takes its title from the surnames of the author's maternal grandparents. Its scope, however, extends well beyond those two surnames to include some thirty-five additional family names. Notable among these is the Bean family remembered for the importance of the crossroads station bearing its name. Some of their members settled early in Marion County, Tennessee where Robert Bean, a Revolutionary soldier, was buried in 1824. JCH

SURRY COUNTY, VIRGINIA COURT RECORDS 1652 - 1663 compiled by Weynette Parks Haun. 1986. 8½x11. Soft cover. iv + 170 pp. Indexed. $20.00. Order from the author: 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704.

Surry County records, dating from 1652, are some of the oldest county records in America and present some notable problems for the transcriptionist. Dr. Richard W. Slatten in his introduction to the book particularly notes the challenges represented by the "unstable spelling of the period...the various difficult-to-read scripts...and the unfamiliar styles in punctuation and abbreviation...the problems created by darkening and deteriorating paper and of fading ink." Although some of this material was previously published, the above observations make a new reading, such as this one, with verbatim copies of the original a prudent idea. JCH, MDK

1880 CENSUS, HUMPHREYS COUNTY, TENNESSEE by Marjorie Hood Fischer and Ruth Blake Burns. 1987. Soft cover, 8½x11, 250 pp. Indexed. $18.00. Order from Ram Press: 1239 Coventry Rd., Vista, CA 92084.

This transcription of the original microfilm lists information in the order in which it was recorded and indicates census page, dwelling, name, race, sex, age, marital status, occupation, relationship to head of household, the birth place of each individual and that of both his parents. An index, first by surname then by given name, provides easy access to some 10,000 residents. JCH

AMERICAN DIARIES: An Annotated Bibliography of Published American Diaries and Journals. First Edition. Volume 2: Diaries Written from 1845 to 1980 by Laura Arksey, Nancy Pries, and Marcia Reed. 1987. Hard cover, 8½x11, xviii + 501 pp. Indexed. $98.00. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226.

An important primary source for the genealogist, this volume lists more than 3,250 diaries with a standard annotation indicating each diary's emphasis, providing information concerning the diarist, and describing broad categories covered. Separate indexes--Subject, Geographic, and Name--provide quick access to the material. MDK

HUNT MIGRATIONS AND RELATIVES, ALONG WITH OTHERS by R.W. Rogers. 1986. Soft cover, 8½x11, 32 pp. For ordering information write the author: 4701 Willard Ave., Chevy Chase, MD 20815.

According to its compiler, "This manuscript is part of a continuing series on The Rogers of Belmont-Mason, Tennessee, and includes the lineage of certain Eubank-Kimbrough-Hunts of Tipton, Co.,..." in Tennessee. There is a partial index. JCH

PLYMOUTH COLONY, Its History & People 1620-1691 by Eugene Aubrey Stratton. 1986. Soft cover, 5½x8½, xi + 481 pp. Indexed. $12.95. Order from Ancestry Publishing, P.O. Box 476, Salt Lake City, UT 84110.

Author Stratton, FASG and former Historian General of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, has utilized early records and modern scholarship to produce a book having as its objective a dissertation on the fortunes of the Plymouth Colony following the arrival of the Mayflower. The book is arranged in three parts: "Chronological Histories: and "Topical Narratives: are followed by "Biographical Sketches." The latter, which includes virtually all persons in the colony up to 1634 with selective listings of those arriving later, is of primary interest to genealogists. WRP

BIOGRAPHY AND GENEALOGY MASTER INDEX 1987 by Barbara McNeill. 1987. Hard cover, 8x11, xxiv + 823 pp. $190.00. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226.

Information received from the publisher indicates that "BGMI 1987 provides an index to more than 120 volumes and editions of more than 95 biographical dictionaries. New editions and volumes of sources previously indexed as well as new titles are indexed." Subject areas covered include business, law, politics, music, religion and technology. JCH

CRAVEN COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES (COURT OF PLEAS & QUARTER SESSIONS) 1749 thru 1756 BOOK IV by Weynette Parks Haun. 1987. Soft cover, 8½x11, 177 pp. Indexed. $20.00. [NC residents and libraries add 5% tax]. Order from the compiler, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704.

A verbatim transcription of the original records located in the North Carolina Department of Archives and History at Raleigh, this volume includes wills and inventories, deeds of sales, gifts, bonds, license renewals, costs of lodging and other miscellaneous items, election of jurors and constables, and powers of attorney. The compiler overcomes "the usual problems of faded ink and ancient paper" to bring North Carolina researchers valuable information. RTD

MARRIAGES OF SOME AMERICAN RESIDENTS AND GUIDE TO DOCUMENTS Volume III by Yates Publishing Co. 1986. Soft cover, 8½x11, 240 pp. $8.00. Order from the compiler, Yates Publishing Co., P.O. Box 237, Ozark, MO 65721.

A computerized printout of some 9000 marriages submitted to the Yates exchange program, this book is third in a series. A review of the first volume in "Ansearchin'" News, Vol. 34, No. 1, details the origin and scope of the series. Husbands' names comprise one alpha-by-surname listing and wives' maiden names another. In most entries the approximate dates of birth and marriage are given as is the state wherein the event occurred. The compiler promises that "eventually all our collection will be indexed in this manner." RDT

ANCESTOR ROSTER OF KENTUCKY SOCIETY DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION 1986 compiled and edited by Mrs. Otis Bundy and Mrs. Bob G. Hurt. 1986. Soft cover, 8½x11, 277 pp. $34.00 [KY residents add 5% tax]. Order from Miss Sara M. Hall, 2389 Randolph Court, Lexington, KY 40503.

An alphabetical listing of the ancestors of members of the Kentucky Society, Daughters of the American Revolution during the last ninety years, this compilation is a valuable resource for genealogists. There is a supplemental roster of chapters listing members along with the Soldier/Patriot and the state from which he served. Both rosters conveniently list the member's DAR number, and readers are instructed concerning the procurement of information from the Society's files. MDK

1770-1790 CENSUS OF THE CUMBERLAND SETTLEMENTS Davidson, Sumner and Tennessee Counties (In What Is Now Tennessee) by Richard Carlton Fulcher. 1987. Hard cover, 6x9, 353 pp. $21.25. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 North Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202.

This compilation efficiently sorts records of early Tennesseans into the various areas of jurisdiction. Its fifty-two pages of references and bibliography appear to be a definitive listing of extant records for residents of the place and period indicated. For those researchers interested in Tennessee's earliest settlers the book is a convenient guide to all those "lost" records. JCH

GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH by George K. Schweitzer, Ph.D., Sc.D. 1987. Soft cover, 6x9, 238 pp. $9.00. Order from Genealogical Sources, Unltd., 407 Regent Court, Knoxville, TN 37923.

According to information received from the author, this book contains over 1300 sources for tracing Georgia ancestors along with detailed instructions for carrying out the research. It is comprised of four chapters. The first is a genealogically oriented history of Georgia, the second describes the types of records available, the third deals with major repositories for Georgia, and the fourth provides instructions on doing Georgia research. For each of the 159 counties there is a listing of the various types of records along with the dates of their availability. This book could make the difference between success and failure. Once you have read it, you will never again do Georgia research without it. JCH

LEGENDS OF THE HADDOCK FAMILY by Hugh Ransom Haddock and Orpha Vaughan Haddock. 1976. Hard cover, 6x9, 344 pp. Indexed. $20.00. Order from Gerald Haddock, 339 E. Jefferson, Wheaton, IL 60187.

Part I includes the legends the title promises. It begins with a 1607 expedition from England to America which included four Haddock brothers, ship builders and fishermen, who subsequently came yearly to "The Landing," a temporary settlement in Maine. By 1764 John Haddock, Sr. and his six children were in Pitt County, NC. Part II deals with the north-westward migration of settlers in search of land, moves into Kentucky and Missouri, and continues with more legends. Part III expands the narrative with historical and genealogical records of individual descendants. MDK

WAYNE COUNTY, TENNESSEE ABSTRACTS OF DEED RECORDS 1820-1839 by James A. Gray. 1985. Hard cover, 8½x11, 296 pp. Indexed. $35.00. Order from the author, Rt. 8, Box 281, Hot Springs, AR 71913.

According to the author, the abstracts offered here "represent the fourth generation copy," with the original deed representing the first, the original book the second, and the 1893 copy (books were recopied by hand at that time) the third. The abstracts show items of personal property along with land descriptions. They also include the instrument and its date, the date it was filed, the record book number and page plus individual land grants. RTD

DAVID AND MARY (McELYEA) SPENCE: Their Ancestors and Descendants BY Louise Bishop Fowler. 1986. Hard cover, 6x9, 399 + viii pp. Indexed. $27.50. Order from the author, P.O. Box 219, Ore City, TX 75683.

Thomas Spence of Scotland immigrated to New Jersey in the middle of the 18th century and removed with his son David to North Carolina following the Revolutionary War. David, while serving in that war, married Mary McElyea in Surry County, North Carolina. The author traces the descendants of this couple, who both died in Tennessee, at advanced ages, to the eighth generation. She enhances her work with letters, photos, paintings, poems, legal documents, and the accomplishments of individual descendants. MDK

BICENTENNIAL TAPESTRY of the YELLOWSTONE CONFERENCE compiled by Doris Whithorn. 1984. Hard cover, 9x11, 211 + ix pp. $15.00. Order from the compiler, 510 South 8th, Livingston, MT 59047.

Complimenting and complementing the title is the book's table of contents. Some typical listings are: "THE LOOM, Methodism from England to America to Wyoming and Montana"; "WARP AND WOOF, Histories of Churches now in the Yellowstone Conference"; THE WEAVERS, Biographical information on Pastors who have served the Yellowstone Conference." The latter, according to the compiler, comprises 2200 sketches of ministers who have served in the conference, an area encompassing all of Montana and parts of Wyoming and Idaho. MDK

THE 1850 FEDERAL CENSUS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA. 1987. 150 pp. Indexed.
BIBLE RECORDS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA And Several From Adjoining County of Stokes. 1985. 152 pp. Indexed. Soft covers, 8½x11. Both books compiled by the James Hunter Chapter, NSDAR. Write for prices and order from Mrs. J. Lee McCollum, Jr., 307 Carter St., Madison, NC 27025.

This transcription of the 1850 Federal Census also includes the 1850 Mortality Schedule. The index includes heads-of-household and all persons within that household with different surnames. The 128 pages comprising the Bible records relate to 136 different families of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries. These records include births, deaths, marriages, and miscellaneous information from loose papers found in the Bibles. RTD

A review of HIDDEN VILLAGE PORT ROYAL, VA 1744-1981 by Ralph Emmett Fall was on p. 40, Vol. 34, No. 1, Spring 1987. The author's address is: 592 North Bethany Road, McDonough, GA 30253.

FROM POCHONTAS TO THE BOLLINGS AND KRIMMS by James Reed Lawrence, Jr. No date. Soft cover, spiral bound, 8½x11, 228 pp. Indexed. Write for price and order from the author, P.O. Box 32, Deatsville, KY 40016.

Part I traces the descent of the Bollings from Colonel Robert Bolling who married Jane Rolfe in 1675 and offers proof of Jane Rolfe's relationship to John Rolfe, the man who married Pocahontas. Miscellaneous charts, letters, deeds, wills, birth and baptismal records, marriage bonds and licenses, and family group sheets demonstrate connections to the Reyman, Dean, and Smith families. Part II surveys German immigrant ancestors of the families and their allied lines of Krimm, Bott, and Wheeler. RTD

ONCE UPON A MEMORY, Your Family Tales and Treasures by Jean Alessi and Jan Miller. 1987. Soft cover, 7x10, 127 pp. Indexed. $7.95. Order from Betterway Publications, Inc., Box 76, White Hall, VA 22987.

The experience of the authors as teachers of a class in Life History is the basis of this very readable and delightful book. It is filled with writing techniques, creative ideas and guidelines for telling a story, interviewing older family members, using photographs, and organizing data for an interesting family history. Blank charts and reference sources are included. RTD

GIBSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGE RECORDS Volume B November, 1870 - February, 1878 by Emily B. Walker. 1987. Soft cover, 8½x11, 75 + xii pp. Indexed

GIBSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE NEWSPAPER HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL EXTRACTS Volume 2 by Emily B. Walker. 1987. Soft cover, 8½x11, 140 pp. Indexed. Write for prices and order from the author, P.O. Box 219, South Fulton, TN 38257.

The marriage records, abstracted from the originals and arranged in alphabetical order by surname of the groom, are an easily accessible reference for genealogists interested in Gibson County residents during the decade following the Civil War. For quick reference a convenient index by maiden name of the bride is included. JCH

Offering excellent genealogical leads and intriguing historical vignettes, the excerpts were taken from: Milan Weekly Times, October 1869-March 1870; The Trenton News, September 20, 1871; The Humboldt Journal, April 1873 and June 1874; The Milan Exchange, March to December 1874. Most of the excerpts are from The Milan Exchange. An index consisting of some 850 surnames is included. For remarks on author Walker's earlier volume in this series, see "Ansearchin'" News, Vol. 33, No. 4, page 192. JCH

HOGUE AND HOGUE: from a 1682 Scottish Immigrant to a 1986 Southern Clan by Lola Gentry Hogue and Jacquelyn Hall Gentry. 1987. Hard cover, 6x9, vi + 179 pp. Indexed. $25.00. Order from Jacquelyn Gentry, 12313 Village Square Terrace, Apt. 201, Rockville, MD 20852.

According to the mother-daughter team whose collaboration produced this book, William Hoge and Barbara Hume Hoge were Scottish immigrants to America in 1682. The great, great grandson of these immigrants, Joseph Johnson Hoge (born 1807) and his wife Nancy Wheeler were the parents of thirteen children whose progeny make up the South West Virginia/Tennessee Hoge/Hogue descendants. In Tennessee the family settled mainly in Hamilton, Rhea, Sequatchie, and Bledsoe Counties. Listed here are 1,258 direct descendants and details of an easy-to-follow system of keeping track of each one. The authors have done a superb job of organizing and presenting their material, and the book is a must for Hoge/Hogue researchers. JCH

BRADLEY COUNTY WILL BOOK 1864-1883 INDEX by Barbara Fagen for the Cleveland Public Library. 1987. Soft cover, 8½x11, 19 pp. Write for price and order from Cleveland Public Library, 833 North Ocoee St., Cleveland, TN 37311.

According to Charles A. Sherrill, Director of the library, this is the earliest extant will book of Bradley County, Tennessee. Most Bradley County records were destroyed during the Civil War including the will book preceeding this one. Presented here is an every-name index which Barbara Fagen compiled using both the original wills and a W.P.A. typescript. JCH

THERE IS NO DEADLINE FOR CERTIFICATES OF TENNESSEE ANCESTRY

There have been inquiries concerning the above. You are not too late to submit documentation and receive your certificate. Add the name of your ancestor to the roll of such early Tennessee ancestors as: WILLIAM BEAN, JOHN FINE, ISAAC DEPEW, BENJAMIN GIST, SAMUEL HANDLY, DAVID MAXWELL II, GRIFFITH RUTHERFORD, JOHN SEVIER, ISAAC THOMAS, JOHN HUMPHREYS, ISAAC ROUTH and NANCY WARD.

Pictured below is a reduced copy of the certificate. The 8 x 11 inch original is printed on ivory parchment with background illustrations in a gray half-tone. Printing is black, highlighted by a gilt border, and a shiny gold seal decorates the Settler (1796-1850) certificate, with a ribbon added for the Pioneer (prior to statehood) certificate.

There will be a $6.00 fee to offset the expense and administration of this program. Applications and all materials submitted become the property of The Tennessee Genealogical Society.

For application forms and additional information, please send a legal size, self-addressed, stamped envelope for each application to:
